Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843,

Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.
Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.
The directors are required to be pecuniarily interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.
Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST,

THE MADISON MUTUAL,

LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.
All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.
We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.
Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected positively, by letting them alone.
Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.
We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

RAILROAD STORE!

I WISH to call attention, as I have done before,
To the Goods I am receiving now at the Railroad Store,
Where all the newest Fashions, to suit the young and old,
The richest and the cheapest goods in Janesville, will be sold.

My large and splendid stock of Lawns to show I'm always willing,
The price, as all the Ladies know, is from sixpence to a shilling.
I've Fine Black Silks from Italy, and colored ones that's rare,
Plaid, Grodenaps and Marcellaines, and Florences to spare.

And such a lot of Hosiery, I know cannot be beat,
And Gloves a great variety, they are so very neat:
Just now, when Spring is coming, and every thing looks bright,
For a glove to suit the season, the color should be light.

There are other Goods for Ladies, of which they ought to know,
That I keep in those blue boxes, and am always pleased to show,
Such as Blonde and Linen Edging, Cotton and Cambric, too,
Muslin and Cambric Needlework, and Gimps of every hue.

Those Undersleeves and Chimisettes I almost had forgot,
And Ladies' Needlework Collars, so beautifully wrought,
With Bishop Lawns and Cambrics, and Muslins fine and neat,
And Lace to make old ladies' Caps and trim them off complete.

And to parry Sol's "directer rays," I've Parasols to sell,
Of every price and color—they please the Ladies well—
And Umbrellas cheap for Gents, or so at least they say,
For lots of them get carried off, on every rainy day.

Such lots of Combs for the million, of every sort and kind,
To puff, or curl, or plait the hair, no better can you find;
And every kind of Buttons for dresses, coats and vests,
To sell by the gross or dozen—they are the very best.

And for Gentlemen and little Boys I have Fashionable Hats,
Silk, Beaver, Leghorn, Panama, and cloth and leather Caps;
And for Infants, Hats with feathers and ribbons gay and bright,
And little Caps with tassels drab, orange, blue and white.

I have stacks of Linen, of yellow, brown and white,
And every other kind, of Summer Goods that's right
To make up into coats and pantaloons and vests—
As large a stock as any, that ever was brought West.

They say long advertisements, are not the oftenest read,
And that most may be meant, as oft, when least is said,
In view of this, I'll close my bill, and here invite you all,
Whenever you come to Janesville, be sure and give me a call.

New England Mutual Life Ins.,

Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843,

Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.

The directors are required to be pecuniarily interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.

Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST,

THE MADISON MUTUAL,

LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected POSITIVELY, by LETTING THEM ALONE.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

RAILROAD STORE!

I WISH to call attention, as I have done before,
To the Goods I am receiving now at the Railroad Store,
Where all the newest Fashions, to suit the young and old,
The richest and the cheapest goods in Janesville, will be sold.

My large and splendid stock of Lawns to show I'm always willing,
The price, as all the Ladies know, is from sixpence to a shilling.
I've Fine Black Silks from Italy, and colored ones that's rare,
Plaid, Grodenaps and Marcellaines, and Florences to spare.

And such a lot of Hosiery, I know cannot be beat,
And Gloves a great variety, they are so very neat:
Just now, when Spring is coming, and every thing looks bright,
For a glove to suit the season, the color should be light.

There are other Goods for Ladies, of which they ought to know,
That I keep in those blue boxes, and am always pleased to show,
Such as Blonde and Linen Edging, Cotton and Cambric, too,
Muslin and Cambric Needlework, and Gimps of every hue.

Those Undersleeves and Chimisettes I almost had forgot,
And Ladies' Needlework Collars, so beautifully wrought,
With Bishop Lawns and Cambrics, and Muslins fine and neat,
And Lace to make old ladies' Caps and trim them off complete.

And to parry Sol's "directer rays," I've Parasols to sell,
Of every price and color—they please the Ladies well—
And Umbrellas cheap for Gents, or so at least they say,
For lots of them get carried off, on every rainy day.

Such lots of Combs for the million, of every sort and kind,
To puff, or curl, or plait the hair, no better can you find;
And every kind of Buttons for dresses, coats and vests,
To sell by the gross or dozen—they are the very best.

And for Gentlemen and little Boys I have Fashionable Hats,
Silk, Beaver, Leghorn, Panama, and cloth and leather Caps;
And for infants, Hats with feathers and ribbons gay and bright,
And little Caps with tassels drab, orange, blue and white.

I have stacks of Linen, of yellow, brown and white,
And every other kind, of Summer Goods that's right
To make up into coats and pantaloons and vests—
As large a stock as any, that ever was brought West.

They say long advertisements, are not the oftenest read,
And that most may be meant, as oft, when least is said,
In view of this, I'll close my bill, and here invite you all,
Whenever you come to Janesville, be sure and give me a call.

New England Mutual Life Ins.,

Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843,

Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.

The directors are required to be pecuniarily interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.

Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST,

THE MADISON MUTUAL,

LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected positively, by letting them alone.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

RAILROAD STORE!

I WISH to call attention, as I have done before,
To the Goods I am receiving now at the Railroad Store,
Where all the newest Fashions, to suit the young and old,
The richest and the cheapest goods in Janesville, will be sold.

My large and splendid stock of Lawns to show I'm always willing,
The price, as all the Ladies know, is from sixpence to a shilling.
I've Fine Black Silks from Italy, and colored ones that's rare,
Plaid, Grodenaps and Marcellaines, and Florences to spare.

And such a lot of Hosiery, I know cannot be beat,
And Gloves a great variety, they are so very neat:
Just now, when Spring is coming, and every thing looks bright,
For a glove to suit the season, the color should be light.

There are other Goods for Ladies, of which they ought to know,
That I keep in those blue boxes, and am always pleased to show,
Such as Blonde and Linen Edging, Cotton and Cambric, too,
Muslin and Cambric Needlework, and Gimps of every hue.

Those Undersleeves and Chimisettes. I almost had forgot,
And Ladies' Needlework Collars, so beautifully wrought,
With Bishop Lawns and Cambrics, and Muslins fine and neat,
And Lace to make old ladies' Caps and trim them off complete.

And to parry Sol's "directer rays," I've Parasols to sell,
Of every price and color—they please the Ladies well—
And Umbrellas cheap for Gents, or so at least they say,
For lots of them get carried off, on every rainy day.

Such lots of Combs for the million, of every sort and kind,
To puff, or curl, or plait the hair, no better can you find;
And every kind of Buttons for dresses, coats and vests,
To sell by the gross or dozen—they are the very best.

And for Gentlemen and little Boys I have Fashionable Hats,
Silk, Beaver, Leghorn, Panama, and cloth and leather Caps;
And for infants, Hats with feathers and ribbons gay and bright,
And little Caps with tassels drab, orange, blue and white.

I have stacks of Linen, of yellow, brown and white,
And every other kind, of Summer Goods that's right
To make up into coats and pantaloons and vests—
As large a stock as any, that ever was brought West.

They say long advertisements, are not the oftenest read,
And that most may be meant, as oft, when least is said,
In view of this, I'll close my bill, and here invite you all,
Whenever you come to Janesville, be sure and give me a call.

☞ The Wisconsin, which since the destructive fire that destroyed most of its material has been issued only upon a half sheet, now appears again in its full dimensions, and looking as bright as new materials and the best workmanship can make it. It is only about three weeks since the office was destroyed. Considering that much of the new office had to be manufactured specially for the occasion, this is quick work, and shows in the proprietor a promptness and energy that ought to be rewarded with increased business.

☞ The Phrenological and Water-Cure almanacs for 1855 have been issued from the press of Fowlers and Wells, to whom we are indebted for copies. These works contain a variety of well written articles in exposition of the sciences indicated by their titles, with numerous engraved illustrations.

☞ Cunningham, who stabbed the police officer, Lower, last Monday, in Chicago, has been indicted by the grand jury, for murder.

IOWA.—The official canvass gives Hall over Clarke, for congress, 177; Thorington over Hempstead, 1552. Clarke was undoubtedly defeated through fraudulent returns.

THE EAR.—Doctor Hartley leaves Milwaukee direct for his institution, at Philadelphia, next week.

THE HARTFORD INSURANCE CO.—The condition of this office, notwithstanding the losses of the last two months, is sound. The capital is whole, with a respectable surplus. The company do not owe a single dollar to any individual, banking or other institution for money borrowed, it has neither notes nor acceptances outstanding, in the hands of any indiuidual or institution, with a large balance in cash to their credit at the bank. And every claim for losses now outstanding will be promptly paid at maturity or before. Their investments, principally in bank stocks, exceed four hundred thousand dollars, and for over forty years that this company has been doing business, it has been the endeavor of its officers and the board of directors to transact it in an honorable way, and in no instance can it be shown that they have sought to increase it by detracting from the good name of any other insurance company in this city.—Hartford Daily Courant.

The above is just as we expected, and we are glad to learn that the old Ætna, of Hartford, is also prospered. These companies suffer from their good reputation, and on account of their popularity, come in for a scorching at almost every fire. See advertisement of "Dodge's Insurance Agency."

CARROLL COUNTY.—Gentlemen from Carroll county inform us, that the people are almost unanimously opposed to Nebraskaism, and that a large number of the democrats intend to make their voice directly felt on the subject, by casting a plump vote for Washburne for congress. This shows good sense as well as patriotism.—How can such political abuses to be prevented, unless it be by voting them down?—Galena Advertiser.

VERY GOOD.—The Milwaukee News and Milwaukee Free Democrat are discussing the propriety of abandoning all personalities in their newspaper controversies hereafter. No two papers in the state stand more in need of such reform.—Kenosha Telegraph.

MR. EDITOR:—The question so often asked, "Have we a Bourbon among us" has almost lost its interest in the public mind, and another of no less importance to the community taken its place. "Have we a know nothing among us," to be answered by some of the knowing ones in this town.

These know nothings, or as they intend the public should appreciate and understand them as all-knowing, are frequently in strict conformity with their title rightly named, and in several instances too, without themselves even being conscious of their own deficiency to understand why they assumed a name so very applicable to themselves. But then, there are others from among that fraternity who rather deserve the appellation of say nothings that are good men and the true grit of our constitution, men who are ready at all times, in all places, and at all hazards, for they run none—nobody knowing who, or where they are to be found, to defend, uphold and enforce if needs be the rights of the community, and in whose eyes property is as sacred as the lives they covet. Not great talkers, but watchful, thinking men ever on the alert, but never seen, so knowing indeed, that while other men of different opinions are differing as to the amount of that difference, and are planning the means, and devising their man to nominate for member of congress, when lo! the "know nothing" candidate is half way to Washington, congratulating himself that he had the good fortune not to belong to such a set of quibblers.

Now sir, it is these great talkers, or babblers strictly speaking who are the real know nothings, for by their incessant chat, they tell or lose all they ever did possess of knowledge, and when they said their say, are left with empty heads, and from the self-same cause are positively in the same breath do nothings, which goes to confirm the old maxim that great "talkers are in general little doers." I think Mr. Editor by giving publicity to the foregoing remarks, the question with the true definition of the pure know nothings will be in a position for answering itself. Yours truly,

A LOOKER ON.

DOUGLAS ON A NEW TACK.—Little Douglas, it seems, tried the free-soil dodge upon his indignant constituents at Chicago, but without success. They would not hear him at all, after he had insulted them with his supercilous, insolent imputation of ignorance. Becoming incensed with the rather humorous ejaculations of some of his auditory, he lost his temper—not much of a loss, by the way—indulged in coarse, vituperative language, and told the people they knew nothing about the Nebraska bill. This was more frank than civil, certainly, whether true or false; and we are not surprised that a flare-up was the immediate consequence. Douglas, who is the most conceited, confident, presumptuous, arrogant, small giant in the world, thought at first he could bully the brethren, and tried hard words with them, but without the slightest effect, except to intensify their indignation. Then being extremely anxious to finish his oration, he put his clumsy, crazy little craft on a new tack. According to an account now before us, he undertook to persuade his hearers that the Nebraska bill was an anti-slavery demstration—that the repeal of the Missouri compromise would prevent the introduction of any more slave states into the union—that if that line had remained intact all states formed south of it must have been admitted with slavery, if the people had hankered after the benefits of that beneficent institution. This certainly was a plausible view of the case, and if Douglas had presented it in the senate he would have rendered his southern coadjutors effectual service, and perhaps aided to defeat the measure. But the candor and ingenuousness of the orator did not impress the Chicago people very profoundly, and his characteristic device had no perceptible effect in conciliating them.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer says Douglas is an extremely pious and devout man, never using a word of profane language, and having prayers in his family night and morning. Probably he celebrated domestic worship with uncommon fervor and unction the morning after the Chicago people declined to have their minds illumined by his wisdom.—Buff. Com. Adv.

OHIO POLITICS.—The election of members of congress takes place in the course of about four weeks. The canvass is now in full blast, and the contest in nearly every one of the twenty-one districts promises to be of the most spirited description. Notwithstanding the enormous majorities by which the democrats have carried the state in the last few years, the Cincinnati Gazette is inclined to believe that there is a clear opposition majority of some fifteen thousand, divided between the whig and free soil parties. In the present canvass these two have united upon the same candidates, and the main contest throughout the state is upon the Nebraska question. In the present congress, Ohio is represented in the house by seven whigs, twelve democrats, and two free soilers, and the Gazette thinks that the chances are in favor of every one of the districts being represented by an anti-administration member in the next congress.

"Behold how brightly breaks the morning!" sang the Washington Union, when it received the returns of the New Hampshire election, upon which the Concord Patriot staked its political reputation, and which the Boston Post endorsed. Since then the morning has broke in other states, only more so. We are gratified to perceive that the Washington Union continues to be pleased with the bright prospects around. At least we infer so, from a recent article on the Syracuse convention, in which we are informed that the administration has been every where sustained by the people—"applauded and sustained," are its words.—Boston Atlas.

DECEIVING THE EMIGRANTS.—A story has been circulated in Liverpool, and has been repeated in Cork and Limerick with many additions, that "the United States will give 160 acres of land to the chief of every family arriving at the ports of New York and Boston."—This is founded on the Nebraska bill, no doubt. The effect will be astounding; every man who can raise, borrow, or beg three pounds sterling, will embark for the United States. When this "half told tale" reaches Antwep, Bremen, and Amsterdam, it will greatly increase emigration. These emigrants have no idea of the distance of Nebraska from the Atlantic shore, and the "runners" take care not to say anything about it.—N. Y. Mirror.

ANOTHER BEAR STORY.—A friend on reading the account of an attack made by a woman and some boys upon a she bear swimming in Lake Champlain, with her cubs, furnishes us the particulars of a like contest in Niagara river, some years since. The Champlain bear story was published in this paper a few days ago; but for fear that some of our readers may have overlooked it, we will repeat the circumatances now. Some boys and a woman who had been picking berries in the vicinity of South bay, a couple of miles north of Whitehall, pushed off a boat and rowed up to a large she bear which was swimming in the lake with her cubs, when one of the party struck the bear with an oar. Thus molested, the bear turned upon the attacking party, and clapping her fore paws on the side of the boat, she exhibited a handsome row of ivory, and made an effort to get inside the skiff. Another bear and cubs also came to the rescue. After considerable manœuvering on both sides, a compromise was effected by which the bear let go the boat, and the boat made a "straight wake" for the shore. The boys and woman went on their way rejoicing, and so did the bears. The former had a narrow escape from being upset in their boat and having a fight in deep water with the bears, while the latter were probably satisfied with being permitted to escape in safety.

The affair on the Niagara, as related by our friend, was in this wise:—A boatman was crossing the river a short distance above the rapids in a skiff, which he pulled with a pair of sculls. When about a quarter of a mile from the American side, he espied a large bear in the water a few rods below him, swimming lustily for the point where he expected to land, just below Schlosser. Bruin had evidently started from the lower end of Grand Island for the main land. The boatman forgot his dangerous proximity to the rapids, in his eagerness to secure the bear, and immediately turning the bow of his skiff down stream, with a few vigorous strokes, he came near enough to the animal to strike him with the oar. Bruin turned to bay, and as his assailant aimed a second blow at his head, he knocked the oar out of the man's hand. Here was a dilemma of the most perplexing description. The boat was unmanageable in the swift current with a single oar—it was fast drifting towards the upper rapids, and the man was in despair. The bear too became sensible of his danger, and seizing hold of the bow of the boat, climbed on board; but apparently overcome with terror, as she approached the rushing water, seated himself quietly, without offering to molest the boatman. The poor fellow looked at the bear with horror, and then at the rapids with increasing alarm. Bruin behaved himself with perfect propriety, however. To be sure he did not proffer his aid in propelling the boat towards the shore; but he regarded his fellow navigator and operations with great interest, and an uncommon benign countenance. It was evident that he considered himself a mere passenger, and while he wished his companion well, he felt bound in honor not to interfere with the management of the craft. Meantime the boat had reached the Sholossar rapids, and bear and man must soon be beyond all human aid. Being an expert swimmer, the man leaped overboard, hoping to reach the land at a point below, known as the French landing.—The bear followed him immediately, and the twain struck out with the vigor imparted by desperation, the bear keeping as near the man as possible, but without making any hostile demonstration. They finally touched the shore nearly at the same time, both much exhausted by the efforts they had made. On reviving, the boatman fled with all the speed he could make, and he was as much surprised as delighted to see the bear running still more rapidly in the contrary direction.

The story is a pretty tough one; but there is no fact in natural history better attested than that the most ferocious animals become subdued, peaceable and harmless in the presence of an overmastering danger.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

ROADSIDE CONFAB.—"And so, squire, you don't take your county paper?"

"No, major, I get the city paper on much better terms, and so I take a couple of them."

"But squire, these county papers prove a great convenience to us. The more we encourage them, the better their editors can make them."

"I dont know of any convenience they are to me."

"The farm you sold last fall was advertised in one of them, and you thereby obtained a customer, did you not?"

"Very true, major, but I paid three dollars for it."

"And made much more than three dollars by it. Now if your neighbors had not maintained that press and kept it ready for your use, you would have been without the means of advertising your daughter's marriage in one of those newspapers. Did that cost you anything?"

"No, but——"

"And your brothers death was thus published."

"Yes, yes, but——"

"And the destruction of neighbor Brigg's house by fire. You know these things were exaggerated until the authentic accounts of our newspapers set them right."

"Oh, true, but——"

"And when your cousin Splash was 'out' for the legislature, you appeared gratified at his newspaper defence which cost him nothing."

"Yes, yes, but these things are news for the readers, they cause people to take papers."

"No, no, Squire Grudge, not if all are like you. Now, I tell you, the day will come when some one will write a very long eulogy on your life and character, and the printer will put it in types, with a heavy black line over it; and with all your riches this will be done for you as a grave is given to a pauper. Your wealth, liberality and such things, will be spoken of, but the printer's boy, as he spells the words in arranging the types to these sayings, will remark of you: 'Poor, mean devil, he is even sponging for his obituary notice!' Good morning, squire."

In many parts of Missouri, the cattle, in consequence of the extreme drouth, are dying of what the farmers call dry murrain—a disease induced by excessive and long continued thirst.

An extensive milk dealer of Paris was recently fined 20,000 francs, and condemned to six months imprisonment, for reducing his milk with water. His books, which were kept with accuracy, showed that his profits thus realized in the course of the last three months were 80,000 francs.

REPLY TO A CHALLENGE.—Hon. G. A. Simmons, upon being interrogated by a southern senator with what he would do in case some southern gentleman should send him a challenge to fight a duel, made the following quaint reply: "I would," said he, "sit down and write him thus—Dear sir: I received your challenge this moment. I am too great a coward to fight, and you must have known it, or else you would not have sent me that challenge."

Cholera, since its first appearance in 1817, has, it is stated, swept off upwards of 70,000,000 of the human race.

OUTRAGE IN ALBANY.—This morning, about two o'clock, Capt. Cox was called upon at the 4th district station house by the captain of the canal boat D. Adams, who stated that eight or ten men and boys came on board his boat when he and his wife were asleep, beat the captain badly, and put him on the dock. They then took his wife away. The boat was moored near the north ferry. Captain Cox rallied his men and went in pursuit of the desperadoes. They had stolen a yawl from a sloop, and the police got another and started for Bath. Just before reaching the shore they met a boat which was in possession of persons in pursuit of a gang who had taken a young girl 17 or 18 years old, from James Gregory, who was conveying her to Bath in a small skiff. Her name was Margaret Haller, and she resided two miles from Bath. Gregory was overtaken by the gang in a boat near the Bath shore and badly beaten. She was conveyed to the lumber district, where they outrageously violated her. The police succeeded in arresting two men named William Avery and Thomas Fagan. The girl recognises Thomas Fagan as one of her assailants. The captain's wife was not heard from at ten o'clock this morning. Another of the gang escaped by shedding his coat in the scuffle. This is the most high handed piece of villainy ever perpetrated in our midst.—Atlas, 5th inst.

We think it quite possible, we would say to the Kenosha Democrat, that not one person in ten has read the whole of the Nebraska bill, but it is, we think, a fact that there is not one person in ten but that has read all there is about which there is any controversy, or about which it was at all necessary for Douglas to make any explanation. It is rather a shallow dodge for the Democrat, or any other paper, to justify Douglas in calling the people of Chicago ignorant of the matter because they had not read an act nineteen-twentieths of which was not at all in question, when each and every one was as familiar with what was in controversy as with their A B C's. We confess that we have not read the bill at length, and do not expect to, but we are not therefore ignorant that it has a clause in it repealing the slavery prohibition which was extended over Kansas and Nebraska, for the end, object and purpose that slavery might spread into that Territory.—Kenosha Telegraph.

MILWAUKEE BONDS.—The following sale of Milwaukee city bonds took place in Wall street, New York on Thursday last:

$5,000	city of Milwaukee	7 per cent bonds,		72½
$5,000	do	do	do	71
$20,000	do	do	do	70

These bonds are said to be a portion of those issued to the Green Bay, Milwaukee and Chicago railroad company.

Shells weighing 100 pounds were fired from Lancaster's long-range gun the other day on board a vessel near the Isle of Wigh with a surprising result. One was sent 4,000 yards distance, and reached the top of a cliff 500 feet high. It was calculated that in a tranquil sea, so that good aim could be taken, a mark 7,000 yards distant might be hit by this gun.

One of the most amusing incidents of the late excursion to Rock Island is thus related by The Utica Telegraph. "A gentlemen in the washroom said to the captain of the boat, 'can't you give me a clean towel, captain?' 'No,' said the captain, "more than fifty persons have used that towel there, and you are the first one that's said a word against it.'"

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.—The Dayton Empire thus relates how providentially Mr. Hosler escaped death from a stroke of lightning, a few days since, while traveling home in a storm:

"The fluid entered his hat where the crown joins the rim, burning a large hole and tearing the brim to pieces, passed down his face, lacerating it severely, knocking out his teeth, tore off the greater part of the lower lip, then passed down his body, tearing it frightfully, passed out of his slippers into the earth, tearing about a half a dozen holes in them! At the time of the casualty, it was raining in torrents, which must have accounted for his not being instantly killed.

Something New!!

MR. CHARLES AUSTIN, the celebrated Reed maker has just completed his new Organ Reed, upon which he has labored for the last five years and expended more than six thousand dollars. This reed is different from all others in its composition, being much larger and having more power. It is intended for Church and Parlor Organs as manufactured by Messrs. Austin & Co. These Organs have an upright (Organ) action and are of the shape of all Church Organs. The price will range from $175 to $300, depending upon the finish of the case. To churches in want of an instrument of that value we would say that they have more power than any common Organ costing $500.

J. F. Pease & Co., Janesville Wis., are interested in the manufacture and sale of these instruments, and are the only persons through whom they can be had. They will have one or more for exhibition as early as Sept. 10, and after that a good assortment as soon as they can be manufactured.

MUSIC! MUSIC!!

HAVING completed the alterations in our music business, we have furnished our room with as good an assortment of Sheet Music as can be found in the west, consisting of Songs, Glees, Waltzes, Polkas, Dances, Marches, Quicksteps, Exercises, &c., and shall continue to receive EVERYTHING NEW as soon as published.

Our business in other places has heretofore prevented us from giving much attention to our room here, but we are now determined to make it what it should be,

Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843,
Capital and accumulation, $650,000.
THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.
Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.
The directors are required to be pecuniarily interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.
Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Highly Important to Farmers.
THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST,
THE MADISON MUTUAL,
LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.
THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.
All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.
We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.
Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected positively, by letting them alone.
Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.
We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

RAILROAD STORE!
I WISH to call attention, as I have done before,
To the Goods I am receiving now at the Railroad Store,
Where all the newest Fashions, to suit the young and old,
The richest and the cheapest goods in Janesville, will be sold.

My large and splendid stock of Lawns to show I'm always willing,
The price, as all the Ladies know, is from sixpence to a shilling.
I've Fine Black Silks from Italy, and colored ones that's rare,
Plaid, Grodenaps and Marcellaines, and Florences to spare.

And such a lot of Hosiery, I know cannot be beat,
And Gloves a great variety, they are so very neat:
Just now, when Spring is coming, and every thing looks bright,
For a glove to suit the season, the color should be light.

There are other Goods for Ladies, of which they ought to know,
That I keep in those blue boxes, and am always pleased to show,
Such as Blonde and Linen Edging, Cotton and Cambric, too,
Muslin and Cambric Needlework, and Gimps of every hue.

Those Undersleeves and Chimisettes I almost had forgot,
And Ladies' Needlework Collars, so beautifully wrought,
With Bishop Lawns and Cambrics, and Muslins fine and neat,
And Lace to make old ladies' Caps and trim them off complete.

And to parry Sol's "directer rays," I've Parasols to sell,
Of every price and color—they please the Ladies well—
And Umbrellas cheap for Gents, or so at least they say,
For lots of them get carried off, on every rainy day.

Such lots of Combs for the million, of every sort and kind,
To puff, or curl, or plait the hair, no better can you find;
And every kind of Buttons for dresses, coats and vests,
To sell by the gross or dozen—they are the very best.

And for Gentlemen and little Boys I have Fashionable Hats,
Silk, Beaver, Leghorn, Panama, and cloth and leather Caps;
And for infants, Hats with feathers and ribbons gay and bright,
And little Caps with tassels drab, orange, blue and white.

I have stacks of Linen, of yellow, brown and white,
And every other kind, of Summer Goods that's right
To make up into coats and pantaloons and vests—
As large a stock as any, that ever was brought West.

They say long advertisements, are not the oftenest read,
And that most may be meant, as oft, when least is said,
In view of this, I'll close my bill, and here invite you all,
Whenever you come to Janesville, be sure and give me a call.
IRA P. BALLOU.

The ONE PRICE CASH SYSTEM, originally introduced into this community and strictly adhered to by this Establishment, has won for it a reputation far more valuable than the Stupendous Self-puffings, quarterly renewed, industriously circulated but universally discredited, which many modern shop keepers deem indispensable to success.

The system will of course be continued—admitting no variation or improvement—to the satisfaction undoubtedly of a large and most desirable class of customers, although at the sacrifice probably of the steady patronage of inveterate higglers and those who inherit the belief that all Salesmen will cheat them if possible.

Respectfully,

NEW GOODS!

$15,000 Worth of

JUST RECEIVED AT THE

Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store.

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Janesville, and what is finer than all the rest, I can sell them at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the Eastern Market. My assortment of

Ladies Fine Shoes,

in particular, I have no hesitation in saying cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant, they shall be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty-five per cent. than can be found at any of the side shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE TRADE my WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole pile of petty dealers put together. And I know also that I can make it an object for Every Farmer in Rock County, as well as every one that trades in Janesville to buy their Boots and Shoes of me for the more I sell the smaller profits I can sell at.

Manufacturing.

I want to say a few words to you in regard to my Manufacturing Department, to wit: That I am now engaged more extensively in the manufacturing business, and probably am selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern tannage, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent more than the common western tanned leather; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can

and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must all see is a very palpable one, that in buying my stock east and in such large quantities, I of course save a very large per cent, and thereby can sell at lower prices and at the same time make my profits.

I want to state further that I have secured the services of MR. BUCKINGHAM, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the River, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the city; and if we don't get you up a better article, both in regard to style and durability, we will forfeit our money and our reputation, and I pledge you my word that this is no small forfeit.

Leather and Findings.

I have just received over $3,000 worth of the very best brands of Eastern Sole & Upper Leather; also, a very large assortment of FRENCH and PHILADELPHIA KIP and FRENCH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at

Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.

I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kings of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TREES, CRIMPS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the pedlers.

TO THE LADIES,

I would say that I am under very great obligation for the partiality you have shown me, in always procuring your understandings from me, and I now publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you who may be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of CACKS, when I shall have closed up my shoe-selling career. I would say further, that I am prepared to get up to order any style of work you wish, at low rates. Yours respectfully,

J. B. DIMOCK, Proprietor,
T. H. BUCKINGHAM, Foreman.

By the way, don't forget the location of the Institution, three doors above the Post Office, Janesville, Wisconsin.

17th SENATORIAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

At the same time and place above designated in the respective towns and wards for meetings, to choose delegates to the county convention, the Republican electors of the wards of the city of Janesville, and of the towns in this county comprised in the 17th senatorial district, are requested to select an equal number of delegates to which they are entitled under the above appointment in the county convention, to represent them in a senatorial convention hereby called at the Court House in Janesville, on THURSDAY the 12th day of October next at 11 o'clock, A. ☞ The Wisconsin, which since the destructive fire that destroyed most of its material has been issued only upon a half sheet, now appears again in its full dimensions, and looking as bright as new materials and the best workmanship can make it. It is only about three weeks since the office was destroyed. Considering that much of the new office had to be manufactured specially for the occasion, this is quick work, and shows in the proprietor a promptness and energy that ought to be rewarded with increased business.

IOWA.—The official canvass gives Hall over Clarke, for congress, 177; Thorington over Hempstead, 1552. Clarke was undoubtedly defeated through fraudulent returns.

THE EAR.—Doctor Hartley leaves Milwaukee direct for his institution, at Philadelphia, next week.

THE HARTFORD INSURANCE CO.—The condition of this office, notwithstanding the losses of the last two months, is sound. The capital is whole, with a respectable surplus. The company do not owe a single dollar to any individual, banking or other institution for money borrowed, it has neither notes nor acceptances outstanding, in the hands of any individual or institution, with a large balance in cash to their credit at the bank. And every claim for losses now outstanding will be promptly paid at maturity or before. Their investments, principally in bank stocks, exceed four hundred thousand dollars, and for over forty years that this company has been doing business, it has been the endeavor of its officers and the board of directors to transact it in an honorable way, and in no instance can it be shown that they have sought to increase it by detracting from the good name of any other insurance company in this city.—Hartford Daily Courant.

The above is just as we expected, and we are glad to learn that the old Ætna, of Hartford, is also prospered. These companies suffer from their good reputation, and on account of their popularity, come in for a scorching at almost every fire. See advertisement of "Dodge's Insurance Agency."

CARROLL COUNTY.—Gentlemen from Carroll county inform us, that the people are almost unanimously opposed to Nebraskaism, and that a large number of the democrats intend to make their voice directly felt on the subject, by casting a plump vote for Washburne for congress. This shows good sense as well as patriotism.—How are such political abuses to be prevented, unless it be by voting them down?—Galena Advertiser.

VERY GOOD.—The Milwaukee News and Milwaukee Free Democrat are discussing the propriety of abandoning all personalities in their newspaper controversies hereafter. No two papers in the state stand more in need of such reform.—Kenosha Telegraph.

MR. EDITOR:—The question so often asked, "Have we a Bourbon among us" has almost lost its interest in the public mind, and another of no less importance to the community taken its place. "Have we a know nothing among us," to be answered by some of the knowing ones in this town.

These know nothings, or as they intend the public should appreciate and understand them as all-knowing, are frequently in strict conformity with their title rightly named, and in several instances too, without themselves even being conscious of their own deficiency to understand why they assumed a name so very applicable to themselves. But then, there are others from among that fraternity who rather deserve the appellation of say nothings that are good men and the true grit of our constitution, men who are ready at all times, in all places, and at all hazards, for they run none—nobody knowing who, or where they are to be found, to defend, uphold and enforce if needs be the rights of the community, and in whose eyes property is as sacred as the lives they covet. Not great talkers, but watchful, thinking men ever on the alert, but never seen, so knowing indeed, that while other men of different opinions are differing as to the amount of that difference, and are planning the means, and devising their man to nominate for member of congress, when lo! the "know nothing" candidate is half way to Washington, congratulating himself that he had the good fortune not to belong to such a set of quibblers.

Now sir, it is these great talkers, or babblers strictly speaking who are the real know nothings, for by their incessant chat, they tell or lose all they ever did possess of knowledge, and when they said their say, are left with empty heads, and from the self-same cause are positively in the same breath do nothings, which goes to confirm the old maxim that great "talkers are in general little doers." I think Mr. Editor by giving publicity to the foregoing remarks, the question with the true definition of the pure know nothings will be in a position for answering itself.

Yours truly,

A LOOKER ON.

DOUGLAS ON A NEW TACK.—Little Douglas, it seems, tried the free-soil dodge upon his indignant constituents at Chicago, but without success. They would not hear him at all, after he had insulted them with his supercilous, insolent imputation of ignorance. Becoming incensed with the rather humorous ejaculations of some of his auditory, he lost his temper—not much of a loss, by the way—indulged in coarse, vituperative language, and told the people they know nothing about the Nebraska bill. This was more frank than civil, certainly, whether true or false; and we are not surprised that a flare-up was the immediate consequence. Douglas, who is the most conceited, confident, presumptuous, arrogant, small giant in the world, thought at first he could bully the brethren, and tried hard words with them, but without the slightest effect, except to intensify their indignation. Then being extremely anxious to finish his oration, he put his clumsy, crazy little craft on a new tack. According to an account now before us, he undertook to persuade his hearers that the Nebraska bill was an anti-slavery demonstration—that the repeal of the Missouri compromise would prevent the introduction of any more slave states into the union—that if that line had remained intact all states formed south of it must have been admitted with slavery, if the people had hankered after the benefits of that beneficent institution. This certainly was a plausible view of the case, and if Douglas had presented it in the senate he would have rendered his southern coadjutors effectual service, and perhaps aided to defeat the measure. But the candor and ingenuousness of the orator did not impress the Chicago people very profoundly, and his characteristic device had no perceptible effect in conciliating them.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer says Douglas is an extremely pious and devout man, never using a word of profane language, and having prayers in his family night and morning. Probably he celebrated domestic worship with uncommon fervor and unction the morning after the Chicago people declined to have their minds illumined by his wisdom.—Buff. Com. Adv.

OHIO POLITICS.—The election of members of congress takes place in the course of about four weeks. The canvass is now in full blast, and the contest in nearly every one of the twenty-one districts promises to be of the most spirited description. Notwithstanding the enormous majorities by which the democrats have carried the state in the last few years, the Cincinnati Gazette is inclined to believe that there is a clear opposition majority of some fifteen thousand, divided between the whig and free soil parties. In the present canvass these two have united upon the same candidates, and the main contest throughout the state is upon the Nebraska question. In the present congress, Ohio is represented in the house by seven whigs, twelve democrats, and two free soilers, and the Gazette thinks that the chances are in favor of every one of the districts being represented by an anti-administration member in the next congress.

"Behold how brightly breaks the morning!" sang the Washington Union, when it received the returns of the New Hampshire election, upon which the Concord Patriot staked its political reputation, and which the Boston Post endorsed. Since then the morning has broke in other states, only more so. We are gratified to perceive that the Washington Union continues to be pleased with the bright prospects around. At least we infer so, from a recent article on the Syracuse convention, in which we are informed that the administration has been every where sustained by the people—"applauded and sustained," are its words.—Boston Atlas.

DECEIVING THE EMIGRANTS.—A story has been circulated in Liverpool, and has been repeated in Cork and Limerick with many additions, that "the United States will give 160 acres of land to the chief of every family arriving at the ports of New York and Boston."—This is founded on the Nebraska bill, no doubt. The effect will be astounding; every man who can raise, borrow, or beg three pounds sterling, will embark for the United States. When this "half told tale" reaches Antwep, Bremen, and Amsterdam, it will greatly increase emigration. These emigrants have no idea of the distance of Nebraska, from the Atlantic shore, and the "runners" take care not to say anything about it.—N. Y. Mirror.

ANOTHER BEAR STORY.—A friend on reading the account of an attack made by a woman and some boys upon a she bear swimming in Lake Champlain, with her cubs, furnishes us the particulars of a like contest in Niagara river, some years since. The Champlain bear story was published in this paper a few days ago; but for fear that some of our readers may have overlooked it, we will repeat the circumstances now. Some boys and a woman who had been picking berries in the vicinity of South bay, a couple of miles north of Whitehall, pushed off a boat and rowed up to a large she bear which was swimming in the lake with her cubs, when one of the party struck the bear with an oar. Thus molested, the bear turned upon the attacking party, and clapping her fore paws on the side of the boat, she exhibited a handsome row of ivory, and made an effort to get inside the skiff. Another bear and cubs also came to the rescue. After considerable manœuvering on both sides, a compromise was effected by which the bear let go the boat, and the boat made a "straight wake" for the shore. The boys and woman went on their way rejoicing, and so did the bears. The former had a narrow escape from being upset in their boat and having a fight in deep water with the bears, while the latter were probably satisfied with being permitted to escape in safety.

The affair on the Niagara, as related by our friend, was in this wise:—A boatman was crossing the river a short distance above the rapids in a skiff, which he pulled with a pair of sculls. When about a quarter of a mile from the American side, he espied a large bear in the water a few rods below him, swimming lustily for the point where he expected to land, just below Schlosser. Bruin had evidently started from the lower end of Grand Island for the main land. The boatman forgot his dangerous proximity to the rapids, in his eagerness to secure the bear, and immediately turning the bow of his skiff down stream, with a few vigorous strokes, he came near enough to the animal to strike him with the oar. Bruin turned to bay, and as his assailant aimed a second blow at his head, he knocked the oar out of the man's hand. Here was a dilemma of the most perplexing description. The boat was unmanageable in the swift current with a single oar—it was fast drifting towards the upper rapids, and the man was in despair. The bear too became sensible of his danger, and seizing hold of the bow of the boat, climbed on board; but apparently overcome with terror, as she approached the rushing water, seated himself quietly, without offering to molest the boatman. The poor fellow looked at the bear with horror, and then at the rapids with increasing alarm. Bruin behaved himself with perfect propriety, however. To be sure he did not proffer his aid in propelling the boat towards the shore; but he regarded his fellow navigator and operations with great interest, and an uncommon benign countenance. It was evident that he considered himself a mere passenger, and while he wished his companion well, he felt bound in honor not to interfere with the management of the craft. Meantime the boat had reached the Sholossar rapids, and bear and man must soon be beyond all human aid. Being an expert swimmer, the man leaped overboard, hoping to reach the land at a point below, known as the French landing.—The bear followed him immediately, and the twain struck out with the vigor imparted by desperation, the bear keeping as near the man as possible, but without making any hostile demonstration. They finally touched the shore nearly at the same time, both much exhausted by the efforts they had made. On reviving, the boatman fled with all the speed he could make, and he was as much surprised as delighted to see the bear running still more rapidly in the contrary direction.

The story is a pretty tough one; but there is no fact in natural history better attested than that the most ferocious animals become subdued, peaceable and harmless in the presence of an overmastering danger.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

ROADSIDE CONFAB.—"And so, squire, you don't take your county paper?"

"No, major, I get the city paper on much better terms, and so I take a couple of them."

"But squire, these county papers prove a great convenience to us. The more we encourage them, the better their editors can make them."

"I dont know of any convenience they are to me."

"The farm you sold last fall was advertised in one of them, and you thereby obtained a customer, did you not?"

"Very true, major, but I paid three dollars for it."

"And made much more than three dollars by it. Now if your neighbors had not maintained that press and kept it ready for your use, you would have been without the means of advertising your daughter's marriage in one of those newspapers. Did that cost you anything?"

"No, but——"

"And your brothers death was thus published."

"Yes, yes, but——"

"And the destruction of neighbor Brigg's house by fire. You know these things were exaggerated until the authentic accounts of our newspapers set them right."

"Oh, true, but——"

"And when your cousin Splash was 'out' for the legislature, you appeared gratified at his newspaper defence which cost him nothing."

"Yes, yes, but these things are news for the readers, they cause people to take papers."

"No, no, Squire Grudge, not if all are like you. Now, I tell you, the day will come when some one will write a very long eulogy on your life and character, and the printer will put it in types, with a heavy black line over it; and with all your riches this will be done for you as a grave is given to a pauper. Your wealth, liberality and such things, will be spoken of, but the printer's boy, as he spells the words in arranging the types to these sayings, will remark of you: 'Poor, mean devil, he is even sponging for his obituary notice!' Good morning, squire."

In many parts of Missouri, the cattle, in consequence of the extreme drouth, are dying of what the farmers call dry murrain—a disease induced by excessive and long continued thirst.

An extensive milk dealer of Paris was recently fined 20,000 francs, and condemned to six months imprisonment, for reducing his milk with water. His books, which were kept with accuracy, showed that his profits thus realized in the course of the last three months were 80,000 francs.

REPLY TO A CHALLENGE.—Hon. G. A. Simmons, upon being interrogated by a southern senator with what he would do in case some southern gentleman should send him a challenge to fight a duel, made the following quaint reply: "I would," said he, "sit down and write him thus—Dear sir: I received your challenge this moment. I am too great a coward to fight, and you must have known it, or else you would not have sent me that challenge."

Cholera, since its first appearance in 1817, has, it is stated, swept off upwards of 70,000,000 of the human race.

OUTRAGE IN ALBANY.—This morning, about two o'clock, Capt. Cox was called upon at the 4th district station house by the captain of the canal boat D. Adams, who stated that eight or ten men and boys came on board his boat when he and his wife were asleep, beat the captain badly, and put him on the dock. They then took his wife away. The boat was moored near the north ferry. Captain Cox rallied his men and went in pursuit of the desperadoes. They had stolen a yawl from a sloop, and the police got another and started for Bath. Just before reaching the shore they met a boat which was in possession of persons in pursuit of a gang who had taken a young girl 17 or 18 years old, from James Gregory, who was conveying her to Bath in a small skiff. Her name was Margaret Haller, and she resided two miles from Bath. Gregory was overtaken by the gang in a boat near the Bath shore and badly beaten. She was conveyed to the lumber district, where they outrageously violated her. The police succeeded in arresting two men named William Avery and Thomas Fagan. The girl recognises Thomas Fagan as one of her assailants. The captain's wife was not heard from at ten o'clock this morning. Another of the gang escaped by shedding his coat in the scuffle. This is the most high handed piece of villainy ever perpetrated in our midst.—Atlas, 5th inst.

We think it quite possible, we would say to the Kenosha Democrat, that not one person in ten has read the whole of the Nebraska bill, but it is, we think, a fact that there is not one person in ten but that has read all there is about which there is any controversy, or about which it was at all necessary for Douglas to make any explanation. It is rather a shallow dodge for the Democrat, or any other paper, to justify Douglas in calling the people of Chicago ignorant of the matter because they had not read an act nineteen-twentieths of which was not at all in question, when each and every one was as familiar with what was in controversy as with their A B C's. We confess that we have not read the bill at length, and do not expect to, but we are not therefore ignorant that it has a clause in it repealing the slavery prohibition which was extended over Kansas and Nebraska, for the end, object and purpose that slavery might spread into that Territory.—Kenosha Telegraph.

MILWAUKEE BONDS.—The following sale of Milwaukee city bonds took place in Wall street, New York on Thursday last:

$5,000	city of Milwaukee	7	per cent bonds,	72¼
$5,000	do	do	do	71
$20,000	do	do	do	70

These bonds are said to be a portion of those issued to the Green Bay, Milwaukee and Chicago railroad company.

Shells weighing 100 pounds were fired from Lancaster's long-range gun the other day on board a vessel near the Isle of Wigh with a surprising result. One was sent 4,000 yards distance, and reached the top of a cliff 500 feet high. It was calculated that in a tranquil sea, so that good aim could be taken, a mark 7,000 yards distant might be hit by this gun.

One of the most amusing incidents of the late excursion to Rock Island is thus related by The Utica Telegraph. "A gentlemen in the washroom said to the captain of the boat, 'can't you give me a clean towel, captain?' 'No,' said the captain, "more than fifty persons have used that towel there, and you are the first one that's said a word against it.'"

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.—The Dayton Empire thus relates how providentially Mr. Hosler escaped death from a stroke of lightning, a few days since, while traveling home in a storm:

"The fluid entered his hat where the crown joins the rim, burning a large hole and tearing the brim to pieces, passed down his face, lacerating it severely, knocking out his teeth, tore off the greater part of the lower lip, then passed down his body, tearing it frightfully, passed out of his slippers into the earth, tearing about a half a dozen holes in them! At the time of the casualty, it was raining in torrents, which must have accounted for his not being instantly killed.

Something New!!

MR. CHARLES AUSTIN, the celebrated Reed maker has just completed his new Organ Reed, upon which he has labored for the last five years and expended more than six thousand dollars. This reed is different from all others in its composition, being much larger and having more power. It is intended for Church and Parlor Organs as manufactured by Messrs. Austin & Co. These Organs have an upright (Organ) action and are of the shape of all Church Organs. The price will range from $175 to $300, depending upon the finish of the case. To churches in want of an instrument of that value we would say that they have more power than any common Organ costing $500.

J. F. Pease & Co., Janesville Wis., are interested in the manufacture and sale of these instruments, and are the only persons through whom they can be had. They will have one or more for exhibition as early as Sept. 10, and after that a good assortment as soon as they can be manufactured.

Let the Horn be Blown!!

"Sound the loud timbrel o'er land and o'er sea," WHEELOCK'S triumphant, and ever shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that
"Man wants but little here below,"
and to supply those wants

WHEELOCK

Announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his old store entirely

TOO SMALL!

He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to

Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!

Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,

$39,007 00 Worth of Goods

But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the

BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.

Indeed, history must fail to give the searcher of knowledge any accurate idea of his immense

STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS,
His inimitable selection of
Fancy Dress Goods!
He has over
10,000 Yards of Silk Bareges,
of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsels of this fair valley can select,

FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES,

Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exquisite beauty, though it may as a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to gild refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamelion and Foulard Silks, but all manner of

are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparrel.—
Eved French red foxed Gaiters,
do do wolfed do
Ladies' Enameled Boots, Enameled sewed Congress Boots,
LADIES MOROCCO POLKAS,
And all the articles manufacutred of the best styles.—So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sex are concerned, it may be truly said

"CUSTOM cannot stale the infinite variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of

GLOVES,

by which hands can be protected and retain

"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are

"Heaven's last, best gift to man,"

the Nonparcils of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock assures his fair customers that his assistants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge CONSCIENTIOUSLY their several and respective duties—that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

And now to the wants of the

COARSE-HAND SEX.

Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality—

PANTALOONS,

CALF "BEWTS,"COW HIDE do., GAZELLE, do.,
PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,

HATS

That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's sconce, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Hibernian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomatumed, ambrosialised, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,

The Boston Store

Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer
DOMESTIC GLASSWARE, WORSTED,
Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn,
Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels,
Looking Glasses, Ready-Made Over Coats, Pants,
Raisins, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns,
Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm,
Chests, Norwegian Bandboxes and Hair Trunks,
Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.

In the

CROCKERY

Line may be found the BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Candlesticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LAW VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in fine, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have

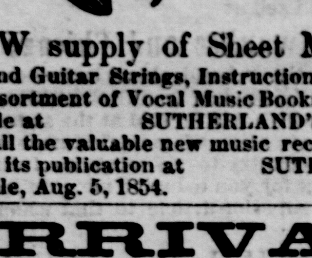

"Often seen corruption boil and bubble till It o'errun the stew,"

they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not

"Stand like forfeits in a Barber shop, More in mock than mark."

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

FROM a Well 400 feet deep, Near Pittsburgh, Pa., is offered to the public as a Natural Medicine of no common value. It is a different thing from the old Kentucky or American Oil, as this is used INTERNALLY as well as externally. As a local remedy in Paralysis, Piles, Rheumatism, Deafness, Loss of Sight, Burns, &c.—also, as a valuable Internal Remedy for Piles, Ague, Scrofula, Coughs, Diarrhœa, Erysipelas, old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Worms, Bladder and Kidneys, Bronchitis, Pains &c. &c., it invites the investigating Physician, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Discovered in 1849, it has within 2 or 3 years, made multitudes of cures, and multitudes of friends—and as soon as tried the Sales not only increase but hold out. Testimony to its great merit is constantly accumulating in the hands of the proprietor by certificates, letters, and in other ways.

IT DOCTORS THE WHOLE MAN—flesh and blood—skin and bones—from head to foot—how it acts upon the system—upon diseases of different manifestations, we cannot fully tell. While it is both cathartic and astringent, it is Alterative—and mind you, a REGULATOR. A leading principle in it is Naptha. When you once have it in the family you will not be without it.

Full as the world is of Patent Medicines—it is thought not best to suppress this, the work of NATURE—to make room for Human inventions. Price 50 cents per bottle. It can be had of wholesalers at the large cities and towns in the West at Proprietor's prices.

HAVE WE AGUE AMONG US?—A tea spoonful every three hours in the absence of the fever will cure you of Ague or Diarrhœa. ☞ Physicians, Druggists, and all friends of the afflicted, will do well to recommend this Oil for PROLAPSUS UTERI, and good will be done—take the usual dose 2 or 3 times a day, and bathe the lower part of the back with it. Have you SCROFULA? The Petroleum will eradicate it, root and branch, at little cost or inconvenience. Get circulars of directions for adults and children, gratis of the agents. A trial is all we ask. Mind and get the right kind—it is of a beautiful reddish color and clear. Try it for Piles.

For sale by HOLDEN KEMP & CO., C. F. Simms, Cary & Gordon, Beloit; G. W. Kinsie, Magnolia; Goodrich, Davis & Co., Milton; S. A. Pond, Albany; P. D. Vaughn & Co., Union; H. Cheney, Johnstown; M. Elliot, Monroe. 43m3

A GREAT MISTAKE.

J. B. CROSBY & Co.

HAVE just returned from New York and Boston, and purchased so large a stock of Merchandise that they have not room to store them, and to remedy this, they have concluded to mark their goods down at

A TRIFLE ABOVE COST,

which will crowd their store with customers and ensure large and heavy sales, thus making room for goods yet to arrive. Ladies and Gentlemen,

THIS IS NO HUMBUG,

but a REALITY, and to be convinced of this fact personally, look through their immense stock, see the amount of goods they have in store, (and but a portion of their stock has yet arrived,) enquire the price, and you will acknowledge that we will sell you

GOOD GOODS, at nearly half the Price,

that other Merchants charge. We shall not mention a few leading articles and their prices, and sell the balance of stock at higher rates, as other Merchants do, but shall mark our whole stock at a small regular profit, and adhere strictly to the

ONE PRICE SYSTEM.

Our stock consists of STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, CROCKERY, BOOTS AND SHOES, HATS, CAPS, CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, READY-MADE CLOTHING, &c. &c., to which we invite especial attention, as to quality and price, as we are determined that

Every Sale shall give Full and Perfect Satisfaction.

Auction or shop worn goods which are not cheap at any price we do not deal in; but buy only the best grade of goods, and of the latest styles. We are the only House in Janesville that do a strictly cash business, and buying of importers and wholly for cash, we

CAN AND WILL SELL
CHEAPER AND BETTER GOODS,

than those who buy small stocks on time, and sell them the same way.

To Country Merchants,

We would say, that we will sell you goods at New York and Boston prices, adding freight. You will find us at the old stand of J. B. CROSBY, two doors above the Post Office.

1000 Dollars Reward,

WILL be given to any person—Physician or otherwise—who will perform a cure as quickly and permanently, by any means whatever, of any of the following diseases, as can be done by the use of

PULVERMACHER'S

Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains.

Rheumatism,	Nervous Headache,
Painful and Swelled Joints,	Palpitation of the Heart,
Sciataca,	General Debility,
Paralysis,	Female Diseases,
Spinal Disease,	Neuralgia of the Face,
Deafness, Blindness,	Rheumatic Pains of the Chest
Dyspepsia, Indigestion,

ALL NERVOUS DISEASES

Are almost instantly removed by the simple application of the Electric Chains, which are constructed so as to be worn next to the skin, producing a constant current of uninterrupted Electro-Magnetism, which within the last few years has been discovered to possess STRANGE and WONDERFUL POWER, in the INSTANT RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of nervous diseases.

HISTORY.

Pulvermachers' Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnochan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.

THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED

to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from scientific Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.

Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.

All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill "which flesh is heir to" is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as an Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that nervous diseases are not more frequently increased in severity than relieved, by the old antiquated way of giving medicine into the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much,) make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic;"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled molasses and water be at a discount, and its famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.

The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.

CAUTION.

Ladies who are enciente, are requested not to wear them, for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.

Price of Chains, $3 to $5, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country, together with a pamphlet of 36 pages, containing the modes of use, certificates of cure, &c. J. STEINERT, General Agent,

☞ The Wisconsin, which since the destructive fire that destroyed most of its material has been issued only upon a half sheet, now appears again in its full dimensions, and looking as bright as new materials and the best workmanship can make it. It is only about three weeks since the office was destroyed. Considering that much of the new office had to be manufactured specially for the occasion, this is quick work, and shows in the proprietor a promptness and energy that ought to be rewarded with increased business.

IOWA.—The official canvass gives Hall over Clarke, for congress, 177; Thorington over Hempstead, 1552. Clarke was undoubtedly defeated through fraudulent returns.

THE EAR.—Doctor Hartley leaves Milwaukee direct for his institution, at Philadelphia, next week.

THE HARTFORD INSURANCE CO.—The condition of this office, notwithstanding the losses of the last two months, is sound. The capital is whole, with a respectable surplus. The company do not owe a single dollar to any individual, banking or other institution for money borrowed, it has neither notes nor acceptances outstanding, in the hands of any individual or institution, with a large balance in cash to their credit at the bank. And every claim for losses now outstanding will be promptly paid at maturity or before. Their investments, principally in bank stocks, exceed four hundred thousand dollars, and for over forty years that this company has been doing business, it has been the endeavor of its officers and the board of directors to transact it in an honorable way, and in no instance can it be shown that they have sought to increase it by detracting from the good name of any other insurance company in this city.—Hartford Daily Courant.

The above is just as we expected, and we are glad to learn that the old Ætna, of Hartford, is also prospered. These companies suffer from their good reputation, and on account of their popularity, come in for a scorching at almost every fire. See advertisement of "Dodge's Insurance Agency."

CARROLL COUNTY.—Gentlemen from Carroll county inform us, that the people are almost unanimously opposed to Nebraskaism, and that a large number of the democrats intend to make their voice directly felt on the subject, by casting a plump vote for Washburne for congress. This shows good sense as well as patriotism.—How are such political abuses to be prevented, unless it be by voting them down!—Galena Advertiser.

VERY GOOD.—The Milwaukee News and Milwaukee Free Democrat are discussing the propriety of abandoning all personalities in their newspaper controversies hereafter. No two papers in the state stand more in need of such reform.—Kenosha Telegraph.

MR. EDITOR:—The question so often asked, "Have we a Bourbon among us" has almost lost its interest in the public mind, and another of no less importance to the community taken its place. "Have we a know nothing among us," to be answered by some of the knowing ones in this town.

These know nothings, or as they intend the public should appreciate and understand them as all-knowing, are frequently in strict conformity with their title rightly named, and in several instances too, without themselves even being conscious of their own deficiency to understand why they assumed a name so very applicable to themselves. But then, there are others from among that fraternity who rather deserve the appellation of say nothings that are good men and the true grit of our constitution, men who are ready at all times, in all places, and at all hazards, for they run none—nobody knowing who, or where they are to be found, to defend, uphold and enforce if needs be the rights of the community, and in whose eyes property is as sacred as the lives they covet. Not great talkers, but watchful, thinking men ever on the alert, but never seen, so knowing indeed, that while other men of different opinions are differing as to the amount of that difference, and are planning the means, and devising their man to nominate for member of congress, when lo! the "know nothing" candidate is half way to Washington, congratulating himself that he had the good fortune not to belong to such a set of quibblers.

Now sir, it is these great talkers, or babblers strictly speaking who are the real know nothings, for by their incessant chat, they tell or lose all they ever did possess of knowledge, and when they said their say, are left with empty heads, and from the self-same cause are positively in the same breath do nothings, which goes to confirm the old maxim that great "talkers are in general little doers." I think Mr. Editor by giving publicity to the foregoing remarks, the question with the true definition of the pure know nothings will be in a position for answering itself. Yours truly,

A LOOKER ON.

DOUGLAS ON A NEW TACK.—Little Douglas, it seems, tried the free-soil dodge upon his indignant constituents at Chicago, but without success. They would not hear him at all, after he had insulted them with his supercilous, fiscient imputation of ignorance. Becoming incensed with the rather humorous ejaculations of some of his auditory, he lost his temper—not much of a loss, by the way—indulged in coarse, vituperative language, and told the people they knew nothing about the Nebraska bill. This was more frank than civil, certainly, whether true or false; and we are not surprised that a flare-up was the immediate consequence. Douglas, who is the most conceited, confident, presumptuous, arrogant, small giant in the world, thought at first he could bully the brethren, and tried hard words with them, but without the slightest effect, except to intensify their indignation. Then being extremely anxious to finish his oration, he put his clumsy, crazy little craft on a new tack. According to an account now before us, he undertook to persuade his hearers that the Nebraska bill was an anti-slavery demstration—that the repeal of the Missouri compromise would prevent the introduction of any more slave states into the union—that if that line had remained intact all states formed south of it must have been admitted with slavery, if the people had hankered after the benefits of that beneficent institution. This certainly was a plausible view of the case, and if Douglas had presented it in the senate he would have rendered his southern coadjutors effectual service, and perhaps aided to defeat the measure. But the candor and ingenuousness of the orator did not impress the Chicago people very profoundly, and his characteristic device had no perceptible effect in conciliating them.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer says Douglas is an extremely pious and devout man, never using a word of profane language, and having prayers in his family night and morning. Probably he celebrated domestic worship with uncommon fervor and unction the morning after the Chicago people declined to have their minds illumined by his wisdom.—Buff. Com. Adv.

OHIO POLITICS.—The election of members of congress takes place in the course of about four weeks. The canvass is now in full blast, and the contest in nearly every one of the twenty-one districts promises to be of the most spirited description. Notwithstanding the enormous majorities by which the democrats have carried the state in the last few years, the Cincinnati Gazette is inclined to believe that there is a clear opposition majority of some fifteen thousand, divided between the whig and free soil parties. In the present canvass these two have united upon the same candidates, and the main contest throughout the state is upon the Nebraska question. In the present congress, Ohio is represented in the house by seven whigs, twelve democrats, and two free soilers, and the Gazette thinks that the chances are in favor of every one of the districts being represented by an anti-administration member in the next congress.

"Behold how brightly breaks the morning!" sang the Washington Union, when it received the returns of the New Hampshire election, upon which the Concord Patriot staked its political reputation, and which the Boston Post endorsed. Since then the morning has broke in other states, only more so. We are gratified to perceive that the Washington Union continues to be pleased with the bright prospects around. At least we infer so, from a recent article on the Syracuse convention, in which we are informed that the administration has been every where sustained by the people—"applauded and sustained," are its words.—Boston Atlas.

DECEIVING THE EMIGRANTS.—A story has been circulated in Liverpool, and has been repeated in Cork and Limerick with many additions, that "the United States will give 160 acres of land to the chief of every family arriving at the ports of New York and Boston."—This is founded on the Nebraska bill, no doubt. The effect will be astounding; every man who can raise, borrow, or beg three pounds sterling, will embark for the United States. When this "half told tale" reaches Antwep, Bremen, and Amsterdam, it will greatly increase emigration. These emigrants have no idea of the distance of Nebraska from the Atlantic shore, and the "runners" take care not to say anything about it.—N. Y. Mirror.

☞ Corn has come to maturity in Minnesota, this season in just 92 days after being planted.

ANOTHER BEAR STORY.—A friend on reading the account of an attack made by a woman and some boys upon a she bear swimming in Lake Champlain, with her cubs, furnishes us the particulars of a like contest in Niagara river, some years since. The Champlain bear story was published in this paper a few days ago; but for fear that some of our readers may have overlooked it, we will repeat the circumstances now. Some boys and a woman who had been picking berries in the vicinity of South bay, a couple of miles north of Whitehall, pushed off a boat and rowed up to a large she bear which was swimming in the lake with her cubs, when one of the party struck the bear with an oar. Thus molested, the bear turned upon the attacking party, and clapping her fore paws on the side of the boat, she exhibited a handsome row of ivory, and made an effort to get inside the skiff. Another bear and cubs also came to the rescue. After considerable manœuvering on both sides, a compromise was effected by which the bear let go the boat, and the boat made a "straight wake" for the shore. The boys and woman went on their way rejoicing, and so did the bears. The former had a narrow escape from being upset in their boat and having a fight in deep water with the bears, while the latter were probably satisfied with being permitted to escape in safety.

The affair on the Niagara, as related by our friend, was in this wise:—A boatman was crossing the river a short distance above the rapids in a skiff, which he pulled with a pair of sculls. When about a quarter of a mile from the American side, he espied a large bear in the water a few rods below him, swimming lustily for the point where he expected to land, just below Schlosser. Bruin had evidently started from the lower end of Grand Island for the main land. The boatman forgot his dangerous proximity to the rapids, in his eagerness to secure the bear, and immediately turning the bow of his skiff down stream, with a few vigorous strokes, he came near enough to the animal to strike him with the oar. Bruin turned to bay, and as his assailant aimed a second blow at his head, he knocked the oar out of the man's hand. Here was a dilemma of the most perplexing description. The boat was unmanageable in the swift current with a single oar—it was fast drifting towards the upper rapids, and the man was in despair. The bear too became sensible of his danger, and seizing hold of the bow of the boat, climbed on board; but apparently overcome with terror, as she approached the rushing water, seated himself quietly, without offering to molest the boatman. The poor fellow looked at the bear with horror, and then at the rapids with increasing alarm. Bruin behaved himself with perfect propriety, however. To be sure he did not proffer his aid in propelling the boat towards the shore; but he regarded his fellow navigator and operations with great interest, and an uncommon benign countenance. It was evident that he considered himself a mere passenger, and while he wished his companion well, he felt bound in honor not to interfere with the management of the craft. Meantime the boat had reached the Sholosser rapids, and bear and man must soon be beyond all human aid. Being an expert swimmer, the man leaped overboard, hoping to reach the land at a point below, known as the French landing.—The bear followed him immediately, and the twain struck out with the vigor imparted by desperation, the bear keeping as near the man as possible, but without making any hostile demonstration. They finally touched the shore nearly at the same time, both much exhausted by the efforts they had made. On reviving, the boatman fled with all the speed he could make, and he was as much surprised as delighted to see the bear running still more rapidly in the contrary direction.

The story is a pretty tough one; but there is no fact in natural history better attested than that the most ferocious animals become subdued, peaceable and harmless in the presence of an overmastering danger.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

ROADSIDE CONFAB.—"And so, squire, you don't take your county paper?"

"No, major, I get the city paper on much better terms, and so I take a couple of them."

"But squire, these county papers prove a great convenience to us. The more we encourage them, the better their editors can make them."

"I dont know of any convenience they are to me."

"The farm you sold last fall was advertised in one of them, and you thereby obtained a customer, did you not?"

"Very true, major, but I paid three dollars for it."

"And made much more than three dollars by it. Now if your neighbors had not maintained that press and kept it ready for your use, you would have been without the means of advertising your daughter's marriage in one of those newspapers. Did that cost you anything?"

"No, but——"

"And your brothers death was thus published."

"Yes, yes, but——"

"And the destruction of neighbor Brigg's house by fire. You know these things were exaggerated until the authentic accounts of our newspapers set them right."

"Oh, true, but——"

"And when your cousin Splash was 'out' for the legislature, you appeared gratified at his newspaper defence which cost him nothing."

"Yes, yes, but these things are news for the readers, they cause people to take papers."

"No, no, Squire Grudge, not if all are like you. Now, I tell you, the day will come when some one will write a very long eulogy on your life and character, and the printer will put it in types, with a heavy black line over it; and with all your riches this will be done for you as a grave is given to a pauper. Your wealth, liberality and such things, will be spoken of, but the printer's boy, as he spells the words in arranging the types to these sayings, will remark of you: 'Poor, mean devil, he is even sponging for his obituary notice!' Good morning, squire."

In many parts of Missouri, the cattle, in consequence of the extreme drouth, are dying of what the farmers call dry murrain—a disease induced by excessive and long continued thirst.

An extensive milk dealer of Paris was recently fined 20,000 francs, and condemned to six months imprisonment, for reducing his milk with water. His books, which were kept with accuracy, showed that his profits thus realized in the course of the last three months were 80,000 francs.

REPLY TO A CHALLENGE.—Hon. G. A. Simmons, upon being interrogated by a southern senator with what he would do in case some southern gentleman should send him a challenge to fight a duel, made the following quaint reply: "I would," said he, "sit down and write him thus—Dear sir: I received your challenge this moment. I am too great a coward to fight, and you must have known it, or else you would not have sent me that challenge."

Cholera, since its first appearance in 1817, has, it is stated, swept off upwards of 70,000,000 of the human race.

OUTRAGE IN ALBANY.—This morning, about two o'clock, Capt. Cox was called upon at the 4th district station house by the captain of the canal boat D. Adams, who stated that eight or ten men and boys came on board his boat when he and his wife were asleep, beat the captain badly, and put him on the dock. They then took his wife away. The boat was moored near the north ferry. Captain Cox rallied his men and went in pursuit of the desperadoes. They had stolen a yawl from a sloop, and the police got another and started for Bath. Just before reaching the shore they met a boat which was in possession of persons in pursuit of a gang who had taken a young girl 17 or 18 years old, from James Gregory, who was conveying her to Bath in a small skiff. Her name was Margaret Hailer, and she resided two miles from Bath. Gregory was overtaken by the gang in a boat near the Bath shore and badly beaten. She was conveyed to the lumber district, where they outrageously violated her. The police succeeded in arresting two men named William Avery and Thomas Fagan. The girl recognises Thomas Fagan as one of her assailants. The captain's wife was not heard from at ten o'clock this morning. Another of the gang escaped by shedding his coat in the scuffle. This is the most high handed piece of villainy ever perpetrated in our midst.—Atlas, 5th inst.

We think it quite possible, we would say to the Kenosha Democrat, that not one person in ten has read the whole of the Nebraska bill, but it is, we think, a fact that there is not one person in ten but that has read all there is about which there is any controversy, or about which it was at all necessary for Douglas to make any explanation. It is rather a shallow dodge for the Democrat, or any other paper, to justify Douglas in calling the people of Chicago ignorant of the matter because they had not read an net nineteen-twentieths of which was not at all in question, when each and every one was as familiar with what was in controversy as with their A B C's. We confess that we have not read the bill at length, and do not expect to, but we are not therefore ignorant that it has a clause in it repealing the slavery prohibition which was extended over Kansas and Nebraska, for the end, object and purpose that slavery might spread into that Territory.—Kenosha Telegraph.

MILWAUKEE BONDS.—The following sale of Milwaukee city bonds took place in Wall street, New York on Thursday last:

$5,000	city of Milwaukee	7 per cent	bonds,	72½
$5,000	do	do	do	71
$20,000	do	do	do	70

These bonds are said to be a portion of those issued to the Green Bay, Milwaukee and Chicago railroad company.

Shells weighing 100 pounds were fired from Lancaster's long-range gun the other day on board a vessel near the Isle of Wigh with a surprising result. One was sent 4,000 yards distance, and reached the top of a cliff 500 feet high. It was calculated that in a tranquil sea, so that good aim could be taken, a mark 7,000 yards distant might be hit by this gun.

One of the most amusing incidents of the late excursion to Rock Island is thus related by The Utica Telegraph. "A gentlemen in the washroom said to the captain of the boat, 'can't you give me a clean towel, captain?' 'No,' said the captain, "more than fifty persons have used that towel there, and you are the first one that's said a word against it.'"

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.—The Dayton Empire thus relates how providentially Mr. Hosler escaped death from a stroke of lightning, a few days since, while traveling home in a storm:

"The fluid entered his hat where the crown joins the rim, burning a large hole and tearing the brim to pieces, passed down his face, lacerating it severely, knocking out his teeth, tore off the greater part of the lower lip, then passed down his body, tearing it frightfully, passed out of his slippers into the earth, tearing about a half a dozen holes in them! At the time of the casualty, it was raining in torrents, which must have accounted for his not being instantly killed.

Something New!!

MR. CHARLES AUSTIN, the celebrated Reed maker has just completed his new Organ Reed, upon which he has labored for the last five years and expended more than six thousand dollars. This reed is different from all others in its composition, being much larger and having more power. It is intended for Church and Parlor Organs as manufactured by Messrs. Austin & Co. These Organs have an upright (Organ) action and are of the shape of all Church Organs. The price will range from $175 to $300, depending upon the finish of the case. To churches in want of an instrument of that value we would say that they have more power than any common Organ costing $500.

J. F. Pease & Co., Janesville Wis., are interested in the manufacture and sale of these instruments, and are the only persons through whom they can be had. They will have one or more for exhibition as early as Sept. 10, and after that a good assortment as soon as they can be manufactured.

The ONE PRICE CASH SYSTEM, originally introduced into this community and strictly adhered to by this Establishment, has won for it a reputation far more valuable than the Stupendous Self-puffings, quarterly renewed, industriously circulated but universally discredited, which many modern shop keepers deem indispensable to success.

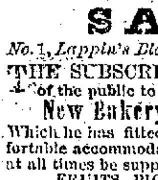

The system will of course be continued—admitting no variation or improvement—to the satisfaction undoubtedly of a large and most desirable class of customers, although at the sacrifice probably of the steady patronage of inveterate higglers and those who inherit the belief that all Salesmen will cheat them if possible.

Respectfully,
COOLEY & BABCOCK.

NEW GOODS!

$15,000 Worth of

JUST RECEIVED AT THE

Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store.

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Janesville, and what is finer than all the rest, I can sell them at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the Eastern Market. My assortment of

Ladies' Fine Shoes,

in particular, I have no hesitation in saying cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant, they shall be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty-five per cent. than can be found at any of the side shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE TRADE my WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole pile of petty dealers put together. And I know also that I can make it an object for Every Farmer in Rock County, as well as every one that trades in Janesville to buy their Boots and Shoes of me for the more I sell the smaller profits I can sell at.

Manufacturing.

I want to say a few words to you in regard to my Manufacturing Department; to wit: That I am now engaged more extensively in the manufacturing business, and probably am selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern tannage, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent more than the common western tanned leather; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can

and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must all see is a very palpable one; that in buying my stock cast and in such large quantities, I of course save a very large per cent, and thereby can sell at lower prices and at the same time make my profits.

I want to state further that I have secured the services of MR. BUCKINGHAM, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the River, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the city; and if we don't get you up a better article, both in regard to style and durability, we will forfeit our money and our reputation, and I pledge you my word that this is no small forfeit.

Leather and Findings.

I have just received over $3,000 worth of the very best brands of Eastern Sole & Upper Leather; also, a very large assortment of FRENCH and PHILADELPHIA KIP and FRENCH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at

Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.

I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kings of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TREES, CRIMPS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the pedlers.

TO THE LADIES,

I would say that I am under very great obligation for the partiality you have shown me, in always procuring your understandings from me, and I now publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you who may be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of GACKS, when I shall have closed up my shoe-selling career. I would say further, that I am prepared to get up to order any style of work you wish, at low rates. Yours respectfully,

J. D. DIMOCK, Proprietor.
T. H. BUCKINGHAM, Foreman.

By the way, don't forget the location of the Institution, three doors above the Post Office, Janesville, Wisconsin.

17th SENATORIAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

At the same time and place above designated in the respective towns and wards for meetings, to choose delegates to the county convention, the Republican electors of the wards of the city of Janesville, and of the towns in this county comprised in the 17th senatorial district, are requested to select an equal number of delegates to which they are entitled under the above appointment in the county convention, to represent them in a senatorial convention hereby called at the Court House in Janesville, on THURSDAY the 12th day of October next at 11 o'clock, A. M., to nominate a candidate for senator.

By order of the County Committee.

IOWA.—The official canvass gives Hall over Clarke, for congress, 177; Thorington over Hempstead, 1552. Clarke was undoubtedly defeated through fraudulent returns.

THE EAR.—Doctor Hartley leaves Milwaukee direct for his institution, at Philadelphia, next week.

THE HARTFORD INSURANCE CO.—The condition of this office, notwithstanding the losses of the last two months, is sound. The capital is whole, with a respectable surplus. The company do not owe a single dollar to any individual, banking or other institution for money borrowed, it has neither notes nor acceptances outstanding, in the hands of any individual or institution, with a large balance in cash to their credit at the bank. And every claim for losses now outstanding will be promptly paid at maturity or before. Their investments, principally in bank stocks, exceed four hundred thousand dollars, and for over forty years that this company has been doing business, it has been the endeavor of its officers and the board of directors to transact it in an honorable way, and in no instance can it be shown that they have sought to increase it by detracting from the good name of any other insurance company in this city.—Hartford Daily Courant.

The above is just as we expected, and we are glad to learn that the old Ætna, of Hartford, is also prospered. These companies suffer from their good reputation, and on account of their popularity, come in for a scorching at almost every fire. See advertisement of "Dodge's Insurance Agency."

CARROLL COUNTY.—Gentlemen from Carroll county inform us, that the people are almost unanimously opposed to Nebraskaism, and that a large number of the democrats intend to make their voice directly felt on the subject, by casting a plump vote for Washburne for congress. This shows good sense as well as patriotism.—How are such political abuses to be prevented, unless it be by voting them down?—Galena Advertiser.

VERY GOOD.—The Milwaukee News and Milwaukee Free Democrat are discussing the propriety of abandoning all personalities in their newspaper controversies hereafter. No two papers in the state stand more in need of such reform.—Kenosha Telegraph.

MR. EDITOR:—The question so often asked, "Have we a Bourbon among us" has almost lost its interest in the public mind, and another of no less importance to the community taken its place. "Have we a know nothing among us," to be answered by some of the knowing ones in this town.

These know nothings, or as they intend the public should appreciate and understand them as all-knowing, are frequently in strict conformity with their title rightly named, and in several instances too, without themselves even being conscious of their own deficiency to understand why they assumed a name so very applicable to themselves. But then, there are others from among that fraternity who rather deserve the appellation of say nothings that are good men and the true grit of our constitution, men who are ready at all times, in all places, and at all hazards, for they run none—nobody knowing who, or where they are to be found, to defend, uphold and enforce if needs be the rights of the community, and in whose eyes property is as sacred as the lives they covet. Not great talkers, but watchful, thinking men ever on the alert, but never seen, so knowing indeed, that while other men of different opinions are differing as to the amount of that difference, and are planning the means, and devising their man to nominate for member of congress, when lo! the "know nothing" candidate is half way to Washington, congratulating himself that he had the good fortune not to belong to such a set of quibblers.

Now sir, it is these great talkers, or babblers strictly speaking who are the real know nothings, for by their incessant chat, they tell or lose all they ever did possess of knowledge, and when they said their say, are left with empty heads, and from the self-same cause are positively in the same breath do nothings, which goes to confirm the old maxim that great "talkers are in general little doers." I think Mr. Editor by giving publicity to the foregoing remarks, the question with the true definition of the pure know nothings will be in a position for answering itself. Yours truly,

A LOOKER ON.

DOUGLAS ON A NEW TACK.—Little Douglas, it seems, tried the free-soil dodge upon his indignant constituents at Chicago, but without success. They would not hear him at all, after he had insulted them with his supercilious, insolent imputation of ignorance. Becoming incensed with the rather humorous ejaculations of some of his auditory, he lost his temper—not much of a loss, by the way—indulged in coarse, vituperative language, and told the people they knew nothing about the Nebraska bill. This was more frank than civil, certainly, whether true or false; and we are not surprised that a flare-up was the immediate consequence. Douglas, who is the most conceited, confident, presumptuous, arrogant, small giant in the world, thought at first he could bully the brethren, and tried hard words with them, but without the slightest effect, except to intensify their indignation. Then being extremely anxious to finish his oration, he put his clumsy, crazy little craft on a new tack. According to an account now before us, he undertook to persuade his hearers that the Nebraska bill was an anti-slavery demstration—that the repeal of the Missouri compromise would prevent the introduction of any more slave states into the union—that if that line had remained intact all states formed south of it must have been admitted with slavery, if the people had hankered after the benefits of that beneficent institution. This certainly was a plausible view of the case, and if Douglas had presented it in the senate he would have rendered his southern coadjutors effectual service, and perhaps aided to defeat the measure. But the candor and ingenuousness of the orator did not impress the Chicago people very profoundly, and his characteristic device had no perceptible effect in conciliating them.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer says Douglas is an extremely pious and devout man, never using a word of profane language, and having prayers in his family night and morning. Probably he celebrated domestic worship with uncommon fervor and unction the morning after the Chicago people declined to have their minds illumined by his wisdom.—Buff. Com. Adv.

OHIO POLITICS.—The election of members of congress takes place in the course of about four weeks. The canvass is now in full blast, and the contest in nearly every one of the twenty-one districts promises to be of the most spirited description. Notwithstanding the enormous majorities by which the democrats have carried the state in the last few years, the Cincinnati Gazette is inclined to believe that there is a clear opposition majority of some fifteen thousand, divided between the whig and free soil parties. In the present canvass these two have united upon the same candidates, and the main contest throughout the state is upon the Nebraska question. In the present congress, Ohio is represented in the house by seven whigs, twelve democrats, and two free soilers, and the Gazette thinks that the chances are in favor of every one of the districts being represented by an anti-administration member in the next congress.

"Behold how brightly breaks the morning!" sang the Washington Union, when it received the returns of the New Hampshire election, upon which the Concord Patriot staked its political reputation, and which the Boston Post endorsed. Since then the morning has broke in other states, only more so. We are gratified to perceive that the Washington Union continues to be pleased with the bright prospects around. At least we infer so, from a recent article on the Syracuse convention, in which we are informed that the administration has been every where sustained by the people—"applauded and sustained," are its words.—Boston Atlas.

DECEIVING THE EMIGRANTS.—A story has been circulated in Liverpool, and has been repeated in Cork and Limerick with many additions, that "the United States will give 160 acres of land to the chief of every family arriving at the ports of New York and Boston."—This is founded on the Nebraska bill, no doubt. The effect will be astounding; every man who can raise, borrow, or beg three pounds sterling, will embark for the United States. When this "half told tale" reaches Antwep, Bremen, and Amsterdam, it will greatly increase emigration. These emigrants have no idea of the distance of Nebraska from the Atlantic shore, and the "runners" take care not to say anything about it.—N. Y. Mirror.

ANOTHER BEAR STORY.—A friend on reading the account of an attack made by a woman and some boys upon a she bear swimming in Lake Champlain, with her cubs, furnishes us the particulars of a like contest in Niagara river, some years since. The Champlain bear story was published in this paper a few days ago; but for fear that some of our readers may have overlooked it, we will repeat the circumstances now. Some boys and a woman who had been picking berries in the vicinity of South bay, a couple of miles north of Whitehall, pushed off a boat and rowed up to a large she bear which was swimming in the lake with her cubs, when one of the party struck the bear with an oar. Thus molested, the bear turned upon the attacking party, and clapping her fore paws on the side of the boat, she exhibited a handsome row of ivory, and made an effort to get inside the skiff. Another bear and cubs also came to the rescue. After considerable manœuvering on both sides, a compromise was effected by which the bear let go the boat, and the boat made a "straight wake" for the shore. The boys and woman went on their way rejoicing, and so did the bears. The former had a narrow escape from being upset in their boat and having a fight in deep water with the bears, while the latter were probably satisfied with being permitted to escape in safety.

The affair on the Niagara, as related by our friend, was in this wise:—A boatman was crossing the river a short distance above the rapids in a skiff, which he pulled with a pair of sculls. When about a quarter of a mile from the American side, he espied a large bear in the water a few rods below him, swimming lustily for the point where he expected to land, just below Schlosser. Bruin had evidently started from the lower end of Grand Island for the main land. The boatman forgot his dangerous proximity to the rapids, in his eagerness to secure the bear, and immediately turning the bow of his skiff down stream, with a few vigorous strokes, he came near enough to the animal to strike him with the oar. Bruin turned to bay, and as his assailant aimed a second blow at his head, he knocked the oar out of the man's hand. Here was a dilemma of the most perplexing description. The boat was unmanageable in the swift current with a single oar—it was fast drifting towards the upper rapids, and the man was in despair. The bear too became sensible of his danger, and seizing hold of the bow of the boat, climbed on board; but apparently overcome with terror, as she approached the rushing water, seated himself quietly, without offering to molest the boatman. The poor fellow looked at the bear with horror, and then at the rapids with increasing alarm. Bruin behaved himself with perfect propriety, however. To be sure he did not proffer his aid in propelling the boat towards the shore; but he regarded his fellow navigator and operations with great interest, and an uncommon benign countenance. It was evident that he considered himself a mere passenger, and while he wished his companion well, he felt bound in honor not to interfere with the management of the craft. Meantime the boat had reached the Sholossar rapids, and bear and man must soon be beyond all human aid. Being an expert swimmer, the man leaped overboard, hoping to reach the land at a point below, known as the French landing.—The bear followed him immediately, and the twain struck out with the vigor imparted by desperation, the bear keeping as near the man as possible, but without making any hostile demonstration. They finally touched the shore nearly at the same time, both much exhausted by the efforts they had made. On reviving, the boatman fled with all the speed he could make, and he was as much surprised as delighted to see the bear running still more rapidly in the contrary direction.

The story is a pretty tough one; but there is no fact in natural history better attested than that the most ferocious animals become subdued, peaceable and harmless in the presence of an overmastering danger.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

ROADSIDE CONFAB.—"And so, squire, you don't take your county paper?"

"No, major, I get the city paper on much better terms, and so I take a couple of them."

"But squire, these county papers prove a great convenience to us. The more we encourage them, the better their editors can make them."

"I dont know of any convenience they are to me."

"The farm you sold last fall was advertised in one of them, and you thereby obtained a customer, did you not?"

"Very true, major, but I paid three dollars for it."

"And made much more than three dollars by it. Now if your neighbors had not maintained that press and kept it ready for your use, you would have been without the means of advertising your daughter's marriage in one of those newspapers. Did that cost you anything?"

"No, but——"

"And your brothers death was thus published."

"Yes, yes, but——"

"And the destruction of neighbor Brigg's house by fire. You know these things were exaggerated until the authentic accounts of our newspapers set them right."

"Oh, true, but——"

"And when your cousin Splash was 'out' for the legislature, you appeared gratified at his newspaper defence which cost him nothing."

"Yes, yes, but these things are news for the readers, they cause people to take papers."

"No, no, Squire Grudge, not if all are like you. Now, I tell you, the day will come when some one will write a very long eulogy on your life and character, and the printer will put it in types, with a heavy black line over it; and with all your riches this will be done for you as a grave is given to a pauper. Your wealth, liberality and such things, will be spoken of, but the printer's boy, as he spells the words in arranging the types to these sayings, will remark of you: 'Poor, mean devil, he is even sponging for his obituary notice!' Good morning, squire."

In many parts of Missouri, the cattle, in consequence of the extreme drouth, are dying of what the farmers call dry murrain—a disease induced by excessive and long continued thirst.

An extensive milk dealer of Paris was recently fined 20,000 francs, and condemned to six months imprisonment, for reducing his milk with water. His books, which were kept with accuracy, showed that his profits thus realized in the course of the last three months were 80,000 francs.

REPLY TO A CHALLENGE.—Hon. G. A. Simmons, upon being interrogated by a southern senator with what he would do in case some southern gentleman should send him a challenge to fight a duel, made the following quaint reply: "I would," said he, "sit down and write him thus—Dear sir: I received your challenge this moment. I am too great a coward to fight, and you must have known it, or else you would not have sent me that challenge."

Cholera, since its first appearance in 1817, has, it is stated, swept off upwards of 70,000,000 of the human race.

OUTRAGE IN ALBANY.—This morning, about two o'clock, Capt. Cox was called upon at the 4th district station house by the captain of the canal boat D. Adams, who stated that eight or ten men and boys came on board his boat when he and his wife were asleep, beat the captain badly, and put him on the dock. They then took his wife away. The boat was moored near the north ferry. Captain Cox rallied his men and went in pursuit of the desperadoes. They had stolen a yawl from a sloop, and the police got another and started for Bath. Just before reaching the shore they met a boat which was in possession of persons in pursuit of a gang who had taken a young girl 17 or 18 years old, from James Gregory, who was conveying her to Bath in a small skiff. Her name was Margaret Haller, and she resided two miles from Bath. Gregory was overtaken by the gang in a boat near the Bath shore and badly beaten. She was conveyed to the lumber district, where they outrageously violated her. The police succeeded in arresting two men named William Avery and Thomas Fagan. The girl recognises Thomas Fagan as one of her assailants. The captain's wife was not heard from at ten o'clock this morning. Another of the gang escaped by shedding his coat in the scuffle. This is the most high handed piece of villainy ever perpetrated in our midst.—Atlas, 5th inst.

We think it quite possible, we would say to the Kenosha Democrat, that not one person in ten has read the whole of the Nebraska bill, but it is, we think, a fact that there is not one person in ten but that has read all there is about which there is any controversy, or about which it was at all necessary for Douglas to make any explanation. It is rather a shallow dodge for the Democrat, or any other paper, to justify Douglas in calling the people of Chicago ignorant of the matter because they had not read an act nineteen-twentieths of which was not at all in question, when each and every one was as familiar with what was in controversy as with their A B C's. We confess that we have not read the bill at length, and do not expect to, but we are not therefore ignorant that it has a clause in it repealing the slavery prohibition which was extended over Kansas and Nebraska, for the only object and purpose that slavery might spread into that Territory.—Kenosha Telegraph.

These bonds are said to be a portion of those issued to the Green Bay, Milwaukee and Chicago railroad company.

Shells weighing 100 pounds were fired from Lancaster's long-range gun the other day on board a vessel near the Isle of Wigh with a surprising result. One was sent 4,000 yards distance, and reached the top of a cliff 500 feet high. It was calculated that in a tranquil sea, so that good aim could be taken, a mark 7,000 yards distant might be hit by this gun.

One of the most amusing incidents of the late excursion to Rock Island is thus related by The Utica Telegraph. "A gentlemen in the washroom said to the captain of the boat, 'can't you give me a clean towel, captain?' 'No,' said the captain, "more than fifty persons have used that towel there, and you are the first one that's said a word against it.'"

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.—The Dayton Empire thus relates how providentially Mr. Hosler escaped death from a stroke of lightning, a few days since, while traveling home in a storm:

"The fluid entered his hat where the crown joins the rim, burning a large hole and tearing the brim to pieces, passed down his face, lacerating it severely, knocking out his teeth, tore off the greater part of the lower lip, then passed down his body, tearing it frightfully, passed out of his slippers into the earth, tearing about a half a dozen holes in them! At the time of the casualty, it was raining in torrents, which must have accounted for his not being instantly killed.

Extensive and beautiful grounds have been chosen, where spacious buildings will be soon erected, arranged with various modern improvements, expressly for a Ladies' Boarding School.

Something New!!

MR. CHARLES AUSTIN, the celebrated Reed maker has just completed his new Organ Reed, upon which he has labored for the last five years and expended more than six thousand dollars. This reed is different from all others in its composition, being much larger and having more power. It is intended for Church and Parlor Organs as manufactured by Messrs. Austin & Co. These Organs have an upright (Organ) action and are of the shape of all Church Organs. The price will range from $175 to $300, depending upon the finish of the case. To churches in want of an instrument of that value we would say that they have more power than any common Organ costing, $500.

J. F. Pease & Co., Janesville Wis., are interested in the manufacture and sale of these instruments, and are the only persons through whom they can be had. They will have one or more for exhibition as early as Sept. 10, and after that a good assortment as soon as they can be manufactured.

AGAIN & AGAIN

THE BOSTON STORE.

Let the Horn be Blown!!

"Sound the loud timbrel o'er land and o'er sea," WHEELOCK'S triumphant, and ever shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that

"Man wants but little here below,"

and to supply those wants

WHEELOCK

Announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his old store entirely

TOO SMALL!

He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to

Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!

Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,

$39,007 00 Worth of Goods

But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the

BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.

Indeed, history must fail to give the searcher of knowledge any accurate idea of his immense

STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS,

His inimitable selection of

Fancy Dress Goods!

He has over

10,000 Yards of Silk Bareges,

of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsels of this fair valley can select,

FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES,

Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exquisite beauty, though it may as a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to gild refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamelion and Foulard Silks, but all manner of

are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparrel.—
Eyed French red foxed Gaiters,
do do wolfed do
Ladies' Enameled Boots, Enameled sewed Congress Boots,
LADIES MOROCCO POLKAS.

And all the articles manufacutred of the best styles.—So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sex are concerned, it may be truly said

"CUSTOM cannot stale the infinite variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of

GLOVES,

by which hands can be protected and retain

"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are

"Heaven's last, best gift to man,"

the Nonparcils of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock assures his fair customers that his assistants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge CONSCIENTIOUSLY their several and respective duties—that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

And now to the wants of the

COARSE-HAND SEX.

Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality.—

PANTALOONS,

CALF "BEWTS,"COW HIDE do., GAZELLE, do., PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,

HATS

That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's sconce, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Hibernian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomatumed, ambrosialized, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,

The Boston Store

Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer

DOMESTIC GLASSWARE. WORSTED,
Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn,
Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels,
Looking Glasses, Ready-Made Over Coats, Pants,
Raisins, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns,
Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm,
Chests, Norwegian Bandboxes and Hair Trunks,
Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.

In the

CROCKERY

Line may be found the BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Candlesticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LAW VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in fine, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have

"Often seen corruption boil and bubble till It o'errun the stew,"

they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not

"Stand like forfeits in a Barber shop, More in mock than mark."

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

FROM a Well 400 feet deep, Near Pittsburgh, Pa., is offered to the public as a Natural Medicine of no common value. It is a different thing from the old Kentucky or American Oil, as this is used INTERNALLY as well as externally. As a local remedy in Paralysis, Piles, Rheumatism, Deafness, Loss of Sight, Burns, &c.—also, as a valuable Internal Remedy for Piles, Ague, Scrofula, Coughs, Diarrhœa, Erysipelas, old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Worms, Bladder and Kidneys, Bronchitis, Pains &c. &c., it invites the investigating Physician, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Discovered in 1849, it has within 2 or 3 years, made multitudes of cures, and multitudes of friends—and as soon as tried the Sales not only increase but hold out. Testimony to its great merit is constantly accumulating in the hands of the proprietor by certificates, letters, and in other ways.

IT DOCTORS THE WHOLE MAN—flesh and blood—skin and bones—from head to foot—how it acts upon the system—upon diseases of different manifestations, we cannot fully tell. While it is both cathartic and astringent, it is Alterative—and mind you, a REGULATOR. A leading principle in it is Naptha. When you once have it in the family you will not be without it.

Full as the world is of Patent Medicines—it is thought not best to suppress this, the work of NATURE—to make room for Human inventions. Price 50 cents per bottle. It can be had of wholesalers at the large cities and towns in the West at Proprietor's prices.

HAVE WE AGUE AMONG US?—A tea spoonful every three hours in the absence of the fever will cure you of Ague or Diarrhœa. ☞ Physicians, Druggists, and all friends of the afflicted, will do well to recommend this Oil for PROLAPSUS UTERI, and good will be done—take the usual dose 2 or 3 times a day, and bathe the lower part of the back with it. Have you SCROFULA? The Petroleum will eradicate it, root and branch, at little cost or inconvenience. Get circulars of directions for adults and children, gratis of the agents. A trial is all we ask. Mind and get the right kind—it is of a beautiful reddish color and clear. Try it for Piles.

For sale by HOLDEN KEMP & CO.,
C. F. Simms, Cary & Gordon, Beloit; G. W. Kinsie, Magnolia; Goodrich, Davis & Co., Milton; S. A. Pond, Albany; P. D. Vaughn & Co., Union; H. Cheney, Johnstown; M. Elliot, Monroe. 43m3

A GREAT MISTAKE.

J. B. CROSBY & Co.

HAVE just returned from New York and Boston, and purchased so large a stock of Merchandise that they have not room to store them, and to remedy this, they have concluded to mark their goods down at

A TRIFLE ABOVE COST,

which will crowd their store with customers and ensure large and heavy sales, thus making room for goods yet to arrive. Ladies and Gentlemen,

THIS IS NO HUMBUG,

but a REALITY, and to be convinced of this fact personally, look through their immense stock, see the amount of goods they have in store, (and but a portion of their stock has yet arrived.) enquire the price, and you will acknowledge that we will sell you

GOOD GOODS, at nearly half the Price,

that other Merchants charge. We shall not mention a few leading articles and their prices, and sell the balance of stock at higher rates, as other Merchants do, but shall mark our whole stock at a small regular profit, and adhere strictly to the

ONE PRICE SYSTEM.

Our stock consists of STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, CROCKERY, BOOTS AND SHOES, HATS, CAPS, CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, READY-MADE CLOTHING, &c. &c., to which we invite especial attention, as to quality and price, as we are determined that

Every Sale shall give Full and Perfect Satisfaction.

Auction or shop worn goods which are not cheap a any price we do not deal in; but buy only the best grade of goods, and of the latest styles. We are the only House in Janesville that do a strictly cash business, and buying of importers and wholly for cash, we than those who buy small stocks on time, and sell them the same way.

CHEAPER AND BETTER GOODS,

To Country Merchants,

1000 Dollars Reward,

WILL be given to any person—Physician or otherwise—who will perform a cure as quickly and permanently, by any means whatever, of any of the following diseases, as can be done by the use of

PULVERMACHER'S

Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains.

Rheumatism,	Nervous Headache,
Painful and Swelled Joints,	Palpitation of the Heart,
Sciataca,	General Debility,
Paralysis,	Female Diseases,
Spinal Disease,	Neuralgia of the Face,
Deafness, Blindness,	Rheumatic Pains of the Chest
Dyspepsia, Indigestion,

ALL NERVOUS DISEASES

Are almost instantly removed by the simple application of the Electric Chains, which are constructed so as to be worn next to the skin, producing a constant current of uninterrupted Electro-Magnetism, which within the last few years has been discovered to possess STRANGE and WONDERFUL POWER, in the INSTANT RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of nervous diseases.

HISTORY.

Pulvermachers' Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnochan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.

THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED

to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from scientific Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.

Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.

All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill "which flesh is heir to" is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as an Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that nervous diseases are not more frequently increased in severity than relieved, by the old antiquated way of giving medicine into the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much,) make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic;"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled molasses and water be at a discount, and its famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.

The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.

CAUTION.

Ladies who are enciente, are requested not to wear them, for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.

Price of Chains, $3 to $5, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country, together with a pamphlet of 36 pages, containing the modes of use, certificates of cure, &c. J. STEINERT, General Agent,
568 Broadway, New York.

The ONE PRICE CASH SYSTEM, originally introduced into this community and strictly adhered to by this Establishment, has won for it a reputation far more valuable than the Stupendous Self-puffings, quarterly renewed, industriously circulated but universally discredited, which many modern shop keepers deem indispensable to success.

The system will of course be continued—admitting no variation or improvement—to the satisfaction undoubtedly of a large and most desirable class of customers, although at the sacrifice probably of the steady patronage of inveterate higglers and those who inherit the belief that all Salesmen will cheat them if possible.

Respectfully,

NEW GOODS!

$15,000 Worth of

JUST RECEIVED AT THE

Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store.

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Janesville, and what is finer than all the rest, I can sell them at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the Eastern Market. My assortment of

Ladies Fine Shoes,

in particular, I have no hesitation in saying cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant, they shall be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty-five per cent. than can be found at any of the side shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE TRADE my WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole pile of petty dealers put together. And I know also that I can make it an object for Every Farmer in Rock County, as well as every one that trades in Janesville to buy their Boots and Shoes of me for the more I sell the smaller profits I can sell at.

Manufacturing.

I want to say a few words to you in regard to my Manufacturing Department, to wit: That I am now engaged more extensively in the manufacturing business, and probably am selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern tannage, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent more than the common western tanned leather; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can

and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must all see is a very palpable one, that in buying my stock cost and in such large quantities, I of course save a very large per cent, and thereby can sell at lower prices and at the same time make my profits.

I want to state further that I have secured the services of MR. BUCKINGHAM, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the River, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the city; and if we don't get you up a better article, both in regard to style and durability, we will forfeit our money and our reputation, and I pledge you my word that this is no small forfeit.

Leather and Findings.

I have just received over $3,000 worth of the very best brands of Eastern Sole & Upper Leather; also, a very large assortment of FRENCH and PHILADELPHIA KIP and FRENCH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at

Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.

I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kinds of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TREES, CRIMPS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the pedlers.

TO THE LADIES,

I would say that I am under very great obligation for the partiality you have shown me, in always procuring your understandings from me, and I now publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you who may be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of CACKS, when I shall have closed up my shoe-selling career. I would say farther, that I am prepared to get up to order any style of work you wish, at low rates. Yours respectfully,

J. B. DIMOCK, Proprietor,
T. H. BUCKINGHAM, Foreman.

By the way, don't forget the location of the Institution, three doors above the Post Office, Janesville, Wisconsin.

IOWA.—The official canvass gives Hall over Clarke, for congress, 177; Thorington over Hempstead, 1552. Clarke was undoubtedly defeated through fraudulent returns.

THE EAR.—Doctor Hartley leaves Milwaukee direct for his institution, at Philadelphia, next week.

THE HARTFORD INSURANCE CO.—The condition of this office, notwithstanding the losses of the last two months, is sound. The capital is whole, with a respectable surplus. The company do not owe a single dollar to any individual, banking or other institution for money borrowed, it has neither notes nor acceptances outstanding, in the hands of any individual or institution, with a large balance in cash to their credit at the bank. And every claim for losses now outstanding will be promptly paid at maturity or before. Their investments, principally in bank stocks, exceed four hundred thousand dollars, and for over forty years that this company has been doing business, it has been the endeavor of its officers and the board of directors to transact it in an honorable way, and in no instance can it be shown that they have sought to increase it by detracting from the good name of any other insurance company in this city.—Hartford Daily Courant.

The above is just as we expected, and we are glad to learn that the old Ætna, of Hartford, is also prospered. These companies suffer from their good reputation, and on account of their popularity, come in for a scorching at almost every fire. See advertisement of "Dodge's Insurance Agency."

CARROLL COUNTY.—Gentlemen from Carroll county inform us, that the people are almost unanimously opposed to Nebraskaism, and that a large number of the democrats intend to make their voice directly felt on the subject, by casting a plump vote for Washburne for congress. This shows good sense as well as patriotism.—How are such political abuses to be prevented, unless it be by voting them down?—Galena Advertiser.

VERY GOOD.—The Milwaukee News and Milwaukee Free Democrat are discussing the propriety of abandoning all personalities in their newspaper controversies hereafter. No two papers in the state stand more in need of such reform.—Kenosha Telegraph.

MR. EDITOR:—The question so often asked, "Have we a Bourbon among us" has almost lost its interest in the public mind, and another of no less importance to the community taken its place. "Have we a know nothing among us," to be answered by some of the knowing ones in this town.

These know nothings, or as they intend the public should appreciate and understand them as all-knowing, are frequently in strict conformity with their title rightly named, and in several instances too, without themselves even being conscious of their own deficiency to understand why they assumed a name so very applicable to themselves. But then, there are others from among that fraternity who rather deserve the appellation of say nothings that are good men and the true grit of our constitution, men who are ready at all times, in all places, and at all hazards, for they run none—nobody knowing who, or where they are to be found, to defend, uphold and enforce if needs be the rights of the community, and in whose eyes property is as sacred as the lives they covet. Not great talkers, but watchful, thinking men ever on the alert, but never seen, so knowing indeed, that while other men of different opinions are differing as to the amount of that difference, and are planning the means, and devising their man to nominate for member of congress, when lo! the "know nothing" candidate is half way to Washington, congratulating himself that he had the good fortune not to belong to such a set of quibblers.

Now sir, it is these great talkers, or babblers strictly speaking who are the real know nothings, for by their incessant chat, they tell or lose all they ever did possess of knowledge, and when they said their say, are left with empty heads, and from the self-same cause are positively in the same breath do nothings, which goes to confirm the old maxim that great "talkers are in general little doers." I think Mr. Editor by giving publicity to the foregoing remarks, the question with the true definition of the pure know nothings will be in a position for answering itself. Yours truly,

A LOOKER ON.

DOUGLAS ON A NEW TACK.—Little Douglas, it seems, tried the free-soil dodge upon his indignant constituents at Chicago, but without success. They would not hear him at all, after he had insulted them with his supercilous, insolent imputation of ignorance. Becoming incensed with the rather humorous ejaculations of some of his auditory, he lost his temper—not much of a loss, by the way—indulged in coarse, vituperative language, and told the people they knew nothing about the Nebraska bill. This was more frank than civil, certainly, whether true or false; and we are not surprised that a flare-up was the immediate consequence. Douglas, who is the most conceited, confident, presumptuous, arrogant, small giant in the world, thought at first he could bully the brethren, and tried hard words with them, but without the slightest effect, except to intensify their indignation. Then being extremely anxious to finish his oration, he put his clumsy, crazy little craft on a new tack. According to an account now before us, he undertook to persuade his hearers that the Nebraska bill was an anti-slavery demstration—that the repeal of the Missouri compromise would prevent the introduction of any more slave states into the union—that if that line had remained intact all states formed south of it must have been admitted with slavery, if the people had hankered after the benefits of that beneficent institution. This certainly was a plausible view of the case, and if Douglas had presented it in the senate he would have rendered his southern coadjutors effectual service, and perhaps aided to defeat the measure. But the candor and ingenuousness of the orator did not impress the Chicago people very profoundly, and his characteristic device had no perceptible effect in conciliating them.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer says Douglas is an extremely pious and devout man, never using a word of profane language, and having prayers in his family night and morning. Probably he celebrated domestic worship with uncommon fervor and unction the morning after the Chicago people declined to have their minds illumined by his wisdom.—Buff. Com. Adv.

OHIO POLITICS.—The election of members of congress takes place in the course of about four weeks. The canvass is now in full blast, and the contest in nearly every one of the twenty-one districts promises to be of the most spirited description. Notwithstanding the enormous majorities by which the democrats have carried the state in the last few years, the Cincinnati Gazette is inclined to believe that there is a clear opposition majority of some fifteen thousand, divided between the whig and free soil parties. In the present canvass these two have united upon the same candidates, and the main contest throughout the state is upon the Nebraska question. In the present congress, Ohio is represented in the house by seven whigs, twelve democrats, and two free soilers, and the Gazette thinks that the chances are in favor of every one of the districts being represented by an anti-administration member in the next congress.

"Behold how brightly breaks the morning!" sang the Washington Union, when it received the returns of the New Hampshire election, upon which the Concord Patriot staked its political reputation, and which the Boston Post endorsed. Since then the morning has broke in other states, only more so. We are gratified to perceive that the Washington Union continues to be pleased with the bright prospects around. At least we infer so, from a recent article on the Syracuse convention, in which we are informed that the administration has been every where sustained by the people—"applauded and sustained," are its words.—Boston Atlas.

DECEIVING THE EMIGRANTS.—A story has been circulated in Liverpool, and has been repeated in Cork and Limerick with many additions, that "the United States will give 160 acres of land to the chief of every family arriving at the ports of New York and Boston."—This is founded on the Nebraska bill, no doubt. The effect will be astounding; every man who can raise, borrow, or beg three pounds sterling, will embark for the United States. When this "half told tale" reaches Antwep, Bremen, and Amsterdam, it will greatly increase emigration. These emigrants have no idea of the distance of Nebraska from the Atlantic shore, and the "runners" take care not to say anything about it.—N. Y. Mirror.

☞ Corn has come to maturity in Minnesota, this season in just 92 days after being planted.

ANOTHER BEAR STORY.—A friend on reading the account of an attack made by a woman and some boys upon a she bear swimming in Lake Champlain, with her cubs, furnishes us the particulars of a like contest in Niagara river, some years since. The Champlain bear story was published in this paper a few days ago; but for fear that some of our readers may have overlooked it, we will repeat the circumstances now. Some boys and a woman who had been picking berries in the vicinity of South bay, a couple of miles north of Whitehall, pushed off a boat and rowed up to a large she bear which was swimming in the lake with her cubs, when one of the party struck the bear with an oar. Thus molested, the bear turned upon the attacking party, and clapping her fore paws on the side of the boat, she exhibited a handsome row of ivory, and made an effort to get inside the skiff. Another bear and cubs also came to the rescue. After considerable manœuvering on both sides, a compromise was effected by which the bear let go the boat, and the boat made a "straight wake" for the shore. The boys and woman went on their way rejoicing, and so did the bears. The former had a narrow escape from being upset in their boat and having a fight in deep water with the bears, while the latter were probably satisfied with being permitted to escape in safety.

The affair on the Niagara, as related by our friend, was in this wise:—A boatman was crossing the river a short distance above the rapids in a skiff, which he pulled with a pair of sculls. When about a quarter of a mile from the American side, he espied a large bear in the water a few rods below him, swimming lustily for the point where he expected to land, just below Schlosser. Bruin had evidently started from the lower end of Grand Island for the main land. The boatman forgot his dangerous proximity to the rapids, in his eagerness to secure the bear, and immediately turning the bow of his skiff down stream, with a few vigorous strokes, he came near enough to the animal to strike him with the oar. Bruin turned to bay, and as his assailant aimed a second blow at his head, he knocked the oar out of the man's hand. Here was a dilemma of the most perplexing description. The boat was unmanageable in the swift current with a single oar—it was fast drifting towards the upper rapids, and the man was in despair. The bear too became sensible of his danger, and seizing hold of the bow of the boat, climbed on board; but apparently overcome with terror, as she approached the rushing water, seated himself quietly, without offering to molest the boatman. The poor fellow looked at the bear with horror, and then at the rapids with increasing alarm. Bruin behaved himself with perfect propriety, however. To be sure he did not proffer his aid in propelling the boat towards the shore; but he regarded his fellow navigator and operations with great interest, and an uncommon benign countenance. It was evident that he considered himself a mere passenger, and while he wished his companion well, he felt bound in honor not to interfere with the management of the craft. Meantime the boat had reached the Sholossar rapids, and bear and man must soon be beyond all human aid. Being an expert swimmer, the man leaped overboard, hoping to reach the land at a point below, known as the French landing.—The bear followed him immediately, and the twain struck out with the vigor imparted by desperation, the bear keeping as near the man as possible, but without making any hostile demonstration. They finally touched the shore nearly at the same time, both much exhausted by the efforts they had made. On reviving, the boatman fled with all the speed he could make, and he was as much surprised as delighted to see the bear running still more rapidly in the contrary direction.

The story is a pretty tough one; but there is no fact in natural history better attested than that the most ferocious animals become subdued, peaceable and harmless in the presence of an overmastering danger.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

ROADSIDE CONFAB.—"And so, squire, you don't take your county paper?"

"No, major, I get the city paper on much better terms, and so I take a couple of them."

"But squire, these county papers prove a great convenience to us. The more we encourage them, the better their editors can make them."

"I dont know of any convenience they are to me."

"The farm you sold last fall was advertised in one of them, and you thereby obtained a customer, did you not?"

"Very true, major, but I paid three dollars for it."

"And made much more than three dollars by it. Now if your neighbors had not maintained that press and kept it ready for your use, you would have been without the means of advertising your daughter's marriage in one of those newspapers. Did that cost you anything?"

"No, but——"

"And your brothers death was thus published."

"Yes, yes, but——"

"And the destruction of neighbor Brigg's house by fire. You know these things were exaggerated until the authentic accounts of our newspapers set them right."

"Oh, true, but——"

"And when your cousin Splash was 'out' for the legislature, you appeared gratified at his newspaper defence which cost him nothing."

"Yes, yes, but these things are news for the readers, they cause people to take papers."

"No, no, Squire Grudge, not if all are like you. Now, I tell you, the day will come when some one will write a very long eulogy on your life and character, and the printer will put it in types, with a heavy black line over it; and with all your riches this will be done for you as a grave is given to a pauper. Your wealth, liberality and such things, will be spoken of, but the printer's boy, as he spells the words in arranging the types to these sayings, will remark of you: 'Poor, mean devil, he is even sponging for his obituary notice!' Good morning, squire."

In many parts of Missouri, the cattle, in consequence of the extreme drouth, are dying of what the farmers call dry murrain—a disease induced by excessive and long continued thirst.

An extensive milk dealer of Paris was recently fined 20,000 francs, and condemned to six months imprisonment, for reducing his milk with water. His books, which were kept with accuracy, showed that his profits thus realized in the course of the last three months were 80,000 francs.

REPLY TO A CHALLENGE.—Hon. G. A. Simmons, upon being interrogated by a southern senator with what he would do in case some southern gentleman should send him a challenge to fight a duel, made the following quaint reply: "I would," said he, "sit down and write him thus—Dear sir: I received your challenge this moment. I am too great a coward to fight, and you must have known it, or else you would not have sent me that challenge."

Cholera, since its first appearance in 1817, has, it is stated, swept off upwards of 70,000,000 of the human race.

OUTRAGE IN ALBANY.—This morning, about two o'clock, Capt. Cox was called upon at the 4th district station house by the captain of the canal boat D. Adams, who stated that eight or ten men and boys came on board his boat when he and his wife were asleep, beat the captain badly, and put him on the dock. They then took his wife away. The boat was moored near the north ferry. Captain Cox rallied his men and went in pursuit of the desperadoes. They had stolen a yawl from a sloop, and the police got another and started for Bath. Just before reaching the shore they met a boat which was in possession of persons in pursuit of a gang who had taken a young girl 17 or 18 years old, from James Gregory, who was conveying her to Bath in a small skiff. Her name was Margaret Haller, and she resided two miles from Bath. Gregory was overtaken by the gang in a boat near the Bath shore and badly beaten. She was conveyed to the lumber district, where they outrageously violated her. The police succeeded in arresting two men named William Avery and Thomas Fagan. The girl recognises Thomas Fagan as one of her assailants. The captain's wife was not heard from at ten o'clock this morning. Another of the gang escaped by shedding his coat in the scuffle. This is the most high handed piece of villainy ever perpetrated in our midst.—Atlas, 5th inst.

We think it quite possible, we would say to the Kenosha Democrat, that not one person in ten has read the whole of the Nebraska bill, but it is, we think, a fact that there is not one person in ten but that has read all there is about which there is any controversy, or about which it was at all necessary for Douglas to make any explanation. It is rather a shallow dodge for the Democrat, or any other paper, to justify Douglas in calling the people of Chicago ignorant of the matter because they had not read an act nineteen-twentieths of which was not at all in question, when each and every one was as familiar with what was in controversy as with their A B C's. We confess that we have not read the bill at length, and do not expect to, but we are not therefore ignorant that it has a clause in it repealing the slavery prohibition which was extended over Kansas and Nebraska, for the end, object and purpose that slavery might spread into that Territory.—Kenosha Telegraph.

$5,000	city of Milwaukee	7 per cent bonds,		72½

$20,000	do	do	do	70

These bonds are said to be a portion of those issued to the Green Bay, Milwaukee and Chicago railroad company.

Shells weighing 100 pounds were fired from Lancaster's long-range gun the other day on board a vessel near the Isle of Wigh with a surprising result. One was sent 4,000 yards distance, and reached the top of a cliff 500 feet high. It was calculated that in a tranquil sea, so that good aim could be taken, a mark 7,000 yards distant might be hit by this gun.

One of the most amusing incidents of the late excursion to Rock Island is thus related by The Utica Telegraph. "A gentlemen in the washroom said to the captain of the boat, 'can't you give me a clean towel, captain?' 'No,' said the captain, "more than fifty persons have used that towel there, and you are the first one that's said a word against it.'"

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.—The Dayton Empire thus relates how providentially Mr. Hosler escaped death from a stroke of lightning, a few days since, while traveling home in a storm:

"The fluid entered his hat where the crown joins the rim, burning a large hole and tearing the brim to pieces, passed down his face, lacerating it severely, knocking out his teeth, tore off the greater part of the lower lip, then passed down his body, tearing it frightfully, passed out of his slippers into the earth, tearing about a half a dozen holes in them! At the time of the casualty, it was raining in torrents, which must have accounted for his not being instantly killed.

Something New!!

MR. CHARLES AUSTIN, the celebrated Reed maker has just completed his new Organ Reed, upon which he has labored for the last five years and expended more than six thousand dollars. This reed is different from all others in its composition, being much larger and having more power. It is intended for Church and Parlor Organs as manufactured by Messrs. Austin & Co. These Organs have an upright (Organ) action and are of the shape of all Church Organs. The price will range from $175 to $300, depending upon the finish of the case. To churches in want of an instrument of that value we would say that they have more power than any common Organ costing, $500.

J. F. Pease & Co., Janesville Wis., are interested in the manufacture and sale of these instruments, and are the only persons through whom they can be had. They will have one or more for exhibition as early as Sept. 10, and after that a good assortment as soon as they can be manufactured.

Good boarding places will be provided for pupils from abroad. Opportunity for practice upon good Pianoes, for those who wish. Apply at Pease's Music Rooms. au22-3w&d

AGAIN & AGAIN
THE BOSTON STORE.
Let the Horn be Blown!!

"Sound the loud timbrel o'er land and o'er sea," WHEELOCK'S triumphant, and ever shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that

"Man wants but little here below,"

and to supply those wants

WHEELOCK

Announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his old store entirely

TOO SMALL!

He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to

Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!

Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,

$39,007 00 Worth of Goods

But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the

BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.

STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS,

His inimitable selection of

Fancy Dress Goods!

He has over

10,000 Yards of Silk Bareges,

of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsels of this fair valley can select,

FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES,

Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exquisite beauty, though it may as a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to gild refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamelion and Foulard Silks, but all manner of

are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparel.—

Eved French red foxed Gaiters,
do do wolfed do
Ladies' Enameled Boots, Enameled sewed Congress Boots,
LADIES MOROCCO POLKAS.

And all the articles manufactured of the best styles.—So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sex are concerned, it may be truly said

"CUSTOM cannot stale the infinite variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of

GLOVES,

by which hands can be protected and retain

"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are

"Heaven's last, best gift to man,"

the Nonparells of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock assures his fair customers that his assistants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge CONSCIENTIOUSLY their several and respective duties—that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

And now to the wants of the

COARSE-HAND SEX.

Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality—

PANTALOONS,

CALF "BEWTS,"COW HIDE do., GAZELLE, do., PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,

HATS

That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's sconce, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Hibernian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomatumed, ambrosialized, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,

The Boston Store

Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer

DOMESTIC GLASSWARE, WORSTED,
Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn,
Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels,
Looking Glasses, Ready-Made Over Coats, Pants,
Raisins, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns,
Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm,
Chests, Norwegian Bandboxes and Hair Trunks,
Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.

In the

CROCKERY

Line may be found the

BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Candlesticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LAW VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in fine, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have

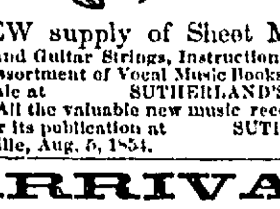

"Often seen corruption boil and bubble till
It o'errun the stew,"

they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not

"Stand like forfeits in a Barber shop,
More in mock than mark."

A. W. WHEELOCK.

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

FROM a Well 400 feet deep, Near Pittsburgh, Pa., is offered to the public as a Natural Medicine of no common value. It is a different thing from the old Kentucky or American Oil, as this is used INTERNALLY as well as externally. As a local remedy in Paralysis, Piles, Rheumatism, Deafness, Loss of Sight, Burns, &c. —also, as a valuable Internal Remedy for Piles, Ague, Scrofula, Coughs, Diarrhœa, Erysipelas, old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Worms, Bladder and Kidneys, Bronchitis, Pains &c. &c., it invites the investigating Physician, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

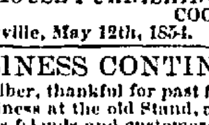

Discovered in 1849, it has within 2 or 3 years, made multitudes of cures, and multitudes of friends—and as soon as tried the Sales not only increase but hold out. Testimony to its great merit is constantly accumulating in the hands of the proprietor by certificates, letters, and in other ways.

IT DOCTORS THE WHOLE MAN—flesh and blood—skin and bones—from head to foot—how it acts upon the system—upon diseases of different manifestations, we cannot fully tell. While it is both cathartic and astringent, it is Alterative—and mind you, a REGULATOR. A leading principle in it is Naptha. When you once have it in the family you will not be without it.

Full as the world is of Patent Medicines—it is thought not best to suppress this, the work of NATURE—to make room for Human inventions. Price 50 cents per bottle. It can be had of wholesalers at the large cities and towns in the West at Proprietor's prices.

HAVE WE AGUE AMONG US?—A tea spoonful every three hours in the absence of the fever will cure you of Ague or Diarrhœa. ☞ Physicians, Druggists, and all friends of the afflicted, will do well to recommend this Oil for PROLAPSUS UTERI, and good will be done—take the usual dose 2 or 3 times a day, and bathe the lower part of the back with it. Have you SCROFULA? The Petroleum will eradicate it, root and branch, at little cost or inconvenience. Get circulars of directions for adults and children, gratis of the agents. A trial is all we ask. Mind and get the right kind—it is of a beautiful reddish color and clear. Try it for Piles.

For sale by HOLDEN KEMP & CO.,
C. F. Simms, Cary & Gordon, Beloit; G. W. Kinsie, Magnolia; Goodrich, Davis & Co., Milton; S. A. Pond, Albany; P. D. Vaughn & Co., Union; H. Cheney, Johnstown; M. Elliot, Monroe. 43m3

A GREAT MISTAKE.

HAVE just returned from New York and Boston, and purchased so large a stock of Merchandise that they have not room to store them, and to remedy this, they have concluded to mark their goods down at

WILL be given to any person—Physician or otherwise—who will perform a cure as quickly and permanently, by any means whatever, of any of the following diseases, as can be done by the use of

PULVERMACHER'S

Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains.

Rheumatism,	Nervous Headache,
Painful and Swelled Joints,	Palpitation of the Heart,
Sciataca,	General Debility,
Paralysis,	Female Diseases,
Spinal Disease,	Neuralgia of the Face,
Deafness, Blindness,	Rheumatic Pains of the
Dyspepsia, Indigestion,	Chest

ALL NERVOUS DISEASES

Are almost instantly removed by the simple application of the Electric Chains, which are constructed so as to be worn next to the skin, producing a constant current of uninterrupted Electro-Magnetism, which within the last few years has been discovered to possess STRANGE and WONDERFUL POWER, in the INSTANT RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of nervous diseases.

HISTORY.

Pulvermachers' Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnochan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.

THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED

to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from scientific Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.

Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.

All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill "which flesh is heir to" is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as an Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that nervous diseases are not more frequently increased in severity than relieved, by the old antiquated way of giving medicine into the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much,) make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic;"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled molasses and water be at a discount, and its famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.

The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.

CAUTION.

Ladies who are enciente, are requested not to wear them, for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.

Price of Chains, $3 to $5, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country, together with a pamphlet of 36 pages, containing the modes of use, certificates of cure, &c. J. STEINERT, General Agent,

EMBROIDERY GOODS.

We probably have a better assortment of these Goods than all the rest of the stores in Janesville put together, consisting of Flowing Sleeves, Habits, Chemisetts, Collars &c., of the most fashionable goods in market, which will be sold at LOWER PRICES than ever before sold in this State. The attention of the Ladies is particularly directed to these Goods.

PARASOLS.

We have now on sale 1000 Parasols. Our immense stock in these goods compels us to say that we will undersell any establishment in this City, at least 25 per cent.

Among our stock may be found 1,000 Linen Coats, warranted linen, at 75 cents each.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

We have now in store over 20,000 pairs of BOOTS AND SHOES, of all descriptions, which the people are requested to take a look at. When they examine the goods and hear the prices, we know they will purchase.

GROCERIES.

As usual our stock of these goods is very large and complete, and the choicest kind of goods. We have a few more chests of that splendid YOUNG HYSON TEA, that we have been selling so much of. Good Sugar for 4½c.

In conclusion, we would say that we find the Cash System the only one that will win. We buy our goods wholly for cash, and shall sell them for the same, and no other way; and consequently those that buy and sell on a credit of a year, eighteen months or two years, as the case may be, cannot sell goods at our prices.—THAT'S SO! For the proof of our assertion, call and examine our goods and prices.

The ONE PRICE CASH SYSTEM, originally introduced into this community and strictly adhered to by this Establishment, has won for it a reputation far more valuable than the Stupendous Self-puffings, quarterly renewed, industriously circulated but universally discredited, which many modern shop keepers deem indispensable to success.

The system will of course be continued—admitting no variation or improvement—to the satisfaction undoubtedly of a large and most desirable class of customers, although at the sacrifice probably of the steady patronage of inveterate bigglers and those who inherit the belief that all Salesmen will cheat them if possible.
Respectfully,
COOLEY & BABCOCK.

You will ask how I can do this; I will tell you: From my long experience in this business, and being a practical Tailor, I know when, where and how to buy my Goods, what to pay for them, and how to cut them, not having to secure the services of an eminent artist, at a salary of $1,000 to $1,500 a year, which the purchaser must pay for—this is the secret. NEW GOODS!

$15,000 Worth of

JUST RECEIVED AT THE

Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store.

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Janesville, and what is finer than all the rest, I can sell them at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the Eastern Market. My assortment of

Ladies Fine Shoes,

in particular, I have no hesitation in saying cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant, they shall be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty-five per cent. than can be found at any of the side shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE TRADE my WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole pile of petty dealers put together. And I know also that I can make it an object for Every Farmer in Rock County, as well as every one that trades in Janesville to buy their Boots and Shoes of me for the more I sell the smaller profits I can sell at.

Manufacturing.

I want to say a few words to you in regard to my Manufacturing Department, to wit: That I am now engaged more extensively in the manufacturing business, and probably am selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern tannage, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent more than the common western tanned leather; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can

and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops; for this reason, which you must all see is a very palpable one, that in buying my stock cash and in such large quantities, I of course save a very large per cent, and thereby can sell at lower prices and at the same time make my profits.

I want to state further that I have secured the services of MR. BUCKINGHAM, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the River, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the city; and if we don't get you up a better article, both in regard to style and durability, we will forfeit our money and our reputation, and I pledge you my word that this is no small forfeit.

Leather and Findings.

I have just received over $3,000 worth of the very best brands of Eastern Sole & Upper Leather; also, a very large assortment of FRENCH and PHILADELPHIA KIP and FRENCH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at

Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.

I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kings of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TREES, CRIMPS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the pedlers.

TO THE LADIES,

I would say that I am under very great obligation for the partiality you have shown me, in always procuring your understandings from me, and I now publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you who may be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of CACKS, when I shall have closed up my shoe-selling career. I would say further, that I am prepared to get up to order any style of work you wish, at low rates. Yours respectfully,
J. B. DIMOCK, Proprietor,
T. H. BUCKINGHAM, Foreman.

By the way, don't forget the location of the Institution, three doors above the Post Office, Janesville, Wisconsin.

Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843,

Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.

The directors are required to be pecuniarily interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.

Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST,

THE MADISON MUTUAL,

LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected POSITIVELY, by LETTING THEM ALONE.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

RAILROAD STORE!

I WISH to call attention, as I have done before,
To the Goods I am receiving now at the Railroad Store,
Where all the newest Fashions, to suit the young and old,
The richest and the cheapest goods in Janesville, will be sold.

My large and splendid stock of Lawns to show I'm always willing,
The price, as all the Ladies know, is from sixpence to a shilling.
I've Fine Black Silks from Italy, and colored ones that's rare,
Plaid, Grodenaps and Marcellaines, and Florences to spare.

And such a lot of Hosiery, I know cannot be beat,
And Gloves a great variety, they are so very neat:
Just now, when Spring is coming, and every thing looks bright,
For a glove to suit the season, the color should be light.

There are other Goods for Ladies, of which they ought to know,
That I keep in those blue boxes, and am always pleased to show,
Such as Blonde and Linen Edging, Cotton and Cambric, too,
Muslin and Cambric Needlework, and Gimps of every hue.

Those Undersleeves and Chimisettes I almost had forgot,
And Ladies' Needlework Collars, so beautifully wrought,
With Bishop Lawns and Cambrics, and Muslins fine and neat,
And Lace to make old ladies' Caps and trim them off complete.

And to parry Sol's "directer rays," I've Parasols to sell,
Of every price and color—they please the Ladies well—
And Umbrellas cheap for Gents, or so at least they say,
For lots of them get carried off, on every rainy day.

Such lots of Combs for the million, of every sort and kind,
To puff, or curl, or plait the hair, no better can you find;
And every kind of Buttons for dresses, coats and vests,
To sell by the gross or dozen—they are the very best.

And for Gentlemen and little Boys I have Fashionable Hats,
Silk, Beaver, Leghorn, Panama, and cloth and leather Caps;
And for infants, Hats with feathers and ribbons gay and bright,
And little Caps with tassels drab, orange, blue and white.

I have stacks of Linen, of yellow, brown and white,
And every other kind, of Summer Goods that's right
To make up into coats and pantaloons and vests—
As large a stock as any, that ever was brought West.

They say long advertisements, are not the oftenest read,
And that most may be meant, as oft, when least is said,
In view of this, I'll close my bill, and here invite you all,
Whenever you come to Janesville, be sure and give me a call.

AGAIN & AGAIN

THE BOSTON STORE.

Let the Horn be Blown!!

"Sound the loud timbrel o'er land and o'er sea," WHEELOCK'S triumphant, and ever shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that

"Man wants but little here below,"

and to supply those wants

WHEELOCK

Announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his old store entirely

TOO SMALL!

He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to

Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!

Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,

$39,007 00 Worth of Goods

But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the

BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.

STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS,

His inimitable selection of

Fancy Dress Goods!

He has over

10,000 Yards of Silk Bareges,

of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsels of this fair valley can select,

FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES,

Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exquisite beauty, though it may as a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to gild refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamelion and Foulard Silks, but all manner of

are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparrel.—

Eyed French red foxed Gaiters, do do woifed do
Ladies' Enameled Boots, Enameled sewed Congress Boots,
LADIES MOROCCO POLKAS,

And all the articles manufacured of the best styles.—So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sex are concerned, it may be truly said

"CUSTOM cannot stale the infinite variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of

GLOVES,

by which hands can be protected and retain

"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are

"Heaven's last, best gift to man,"

the Nonpareils of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock assures his fair customers that his assistants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge CONSCIENTIOUSLY their several and respective duties—that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

And now to the wants of the

COARSE-HAND SEX.

Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality—

PANTALOONS,

CALF "BEWTS," COW HIDE do., GAZELLE, do., PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,

HATS

That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's sconce, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Hiberaian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomatumed, ambrosialized, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,

The Boston Store

Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer

DOMESTIC GLASSWARE. WORSTED,
Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn,
Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels,
Looking Glasses, Ready-Made Over Coats, Pants,
Raisins, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns,
Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm,
Chests, Norwegian Bandboxes and Hair Trunks,
Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.

In the

CROCKERY

Line may be found the BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Candlesticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LAW VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in fine, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have

"Often seen corruption boil and bubble till It o'errun the stew,"

they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not

"Stand like forfeits in a Barber shop, More in mock than mark."

Janesville, July 5, 1854. 42y1

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

FROM a Well 400 feet deep, Near Pittsburgh, Pa., is offered to the public as a Natural Medicine of no common value. It is a different thing from the old Kentucky or American Oil, as this is used INTERNALLY as well as externally. As a local remedy in Paralysis, Piles, Rheumatism, Deafness, Loss of Sight, Burns, &c. &c.—also, as a valuable Internal Remedy for Piles, Ague, Scrofula, Coughs, Diarrhœa, Erysipelas, old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Worms, Bladder and Kidneys, Bronchitis, Pains &c. &c., it invites the investigating Physician, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Discovered in 1849, it has within 2 or 3 years, made multitudes of cures, and multitudes of friends—and as soon as tried the Sales not only increase but hold out. Testimony to its great merit is constantly accumulating in the hands of the proprietor by certificates, letters, and in other ways.

IT DOCTORS THE WHOLE MAN—flesh and blood—skin and bones—from head to foot—how it acts upon the system—upon diseases of different manifestations, we cannot fully tell. While it is both cathartic and astringent, it is Alterative—and mind you, a REGULATOR. A leading principle in it is Naptha. When you once have it in the family you will not be without it.

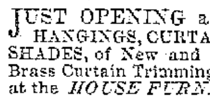

Full as the world is of Patent Medicines—it is thought not best to suppress this, the work of NATURE—to make room for Human inventions. Price 50 cents per bottle. It can be had of wholesalers at the large cities and towns in the West at Proprietor's prices.

HAVE WE AGUE AMONG US?—A tea spoonful every three hours in the absence of the fever will cure you of Ague or Diarrhœa. ☞ Physicians, Druggists, and all friends of the afflicted, will do well to recommend this Oil for PROLAPSUS UTERI, and good will be done—take the usual dose 2 or 3 times a day, and bathe the lower part of the back with it. Have you SCROFULA? The Petroleum will eradicate it, root and branch, at little cost or inconvenience. Get circulars of directions for adults and children, gratis of the agents. A trial is all we ask. Mind and get the right kind—it is of a beautiful reddish color and clear. Try it for Piles.

For sale by HOLDEN KEMP & CO.,

A GREAT MISTAKE,

J. B. CROSBY & Co.

HAVE just returned from New York and Boston, and purchased so large a stock of Merchandise that they have not room to store them, and to remedy this, they have concluded to mark their goods down at

A TRIFLE ABOVE COST,

which will crowd their store with customers and ensure large and heavy sales, thus making room for goods yet to arrive. Ladies and Gentlemen,

THIS IS NO HUMBUG,

but a REALITY, and to be convinced of this fact personally, look through their immense stock, see the amount of goods they have in store, (and but a portion of their stock has yet arrived,) enquire the price, and you will acknowledge that we will sell you

GOOD GOODS, at nearly half the Price,

that other Merchants charge. We shall not mention a few leading articles and their prices, and sell the balance of stock at higher rates, as other Merchants do, but shall mark our whole stock at a small regular profit, and adhere strictly to the

ONE PRICE SYSTEM.

Our stock consists of STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, CROCKERY, BOOTS AND SHOES, HATS, CAPS, CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, READY-MADE CLOTHING, &c. &c., to which we invite especial attention, as to quality and price, as we are determined that

Every Sale shall give Full and Perfect Satisfaction.

Auction or shop worn goods which are not cheap a any price we do not deal in; but buy only the bes grade of goods, and of the latest styles. We are the only House in Janesville that do a strictly cash business, and buying of importers and wholly for cash, we

CHEAPER AND BETTER GOODS,

than those who buy small stocks on time, and sell them the same way.

To Country Merchants,

We would say, that we will sell you goods at New York and Boston prices, adding freight. You will find us at the old stand of J. B. CROSBY, two doors above the Post Office.

WILL be given to any person—Physician or otherwise—who will perform a cure as quickly and permanently, by any means whatever, of any of the following diseases, as can be done by the use of

PULVERMACHER'S

Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains.

Rheumatism,	Nervous Headache,
Painful and Swelled Joints,	Palpitation of the Heart,
Sciatica,	General Debility,
Paralysis,	Female Diseases,
Spinal Disease,	Neuralgia of the Face,
Deafness, Blindness,	Rheumatic Pains of the

ALL NERVOUS DISEASES

Are almost instantly removed by the simple application of the Electric Chains, which are constructed so as to be worn next to the skin, producing a constant current of uninterrupted Electro-Magnetism, which within the last few years has been discovered to possess STRANGE and WONDERFUL POWER, in the INSTANT RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of nervous diseases.

HISTORY.

Pulvermachers' Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnochan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.

THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED

to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from scientific Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.

Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.

All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill "which flesh is heir to" is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as an Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that nervous diseases are not more frequently increased in severity than relieved, by the old antiquated way of giving medicine into the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much,) make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic;"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled molasses and water be at a discount, and its famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.

The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.

CAUTION.

Ladies who are enciente, are requested not to wear them, for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.

Price of Chains, $3 to $5, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country, together with a pamphlet of 26 pages, containing the modes of use, certificates of cure, &c. J. STEINERT, General Agent,
568 Broadway, New York.

The electors of Rock county who are determined to support no man for office who is not positively and fully committed to the support of the principles announced in the "Republican Platform" adopted at Madison on the 13th of July last, and whose personal character, political associations and private conduct, do not afford a guarantee that he is reliable, are invited to meet in their respective townships or wards at the place of holding the last township or ward election, on Tuesday, the 10th day of October next, at 2 o'clock P. 17th SENATORIAL DISTRICT CONVENTION.

At the same time and place above designated in the respective towns and wards for meetings, to choose delegates to the county convention, the Republican electors of the wards of the city of Janesville, and of the towns in this county comprised in the 17th senatorial district, are requested to select an equal number of delegates to which they are entitled under the above appointment in the county convention, to represent them in a senatorial convention hereby called at the Court House in Janesville, on THURSDAY the 12th day of October next at 11 o'clock, A. By order of the County Committee.

☞ The Milwaukee Sentinel of yesterday has a private dispatch, announcing the arrival of the Atlantic. Flour declined 6 pence to 1 shilling; wheat, 3 pence; corn, 1 shilling.

Russia peremptorily rejects the guarantee that the principalities be evacuated.

Bomersund has been blown up by the allies.

☞ Merchandise was received in Milwaukee, Wednesday, by propellor Iowa, for Pixley & Kimball, G. B. Ely and R. J. Richardson.

By propeller Bucephalus, for Pixley & Kimball and McKay & Bro.

☞ The Wisconsin, which since the destructive fire that destroyed most of its material has been issued only upon a half sheet, now appears again in its full dimensions, and looking as bright as new materials and the best workmanship can make it. It is only about three weeks since the office was destroyed. Considering that much of the new office had to be manufactured specially for the occasion, this is quick work, and shows in the proprietor a promptness and energy that ought to be rewarded with increased business.

☞ The Phrenological and Water-Cure almanacs for 1855 have been issued from the press of Fowlers and Wells, to whom we are indebted for copies. These works contain a variety of well written articles in exposition of the sciences indicated by their titles, with numerous engraved illustrations.

☞ Cunningham, who stabbed the police officer, Lower, last Monday, in Chicago, has been indicted by the grand jury, for murder.

IOWA.—The official canvass gives Hall over Clarke, for congress, 177; Thorington over Hempstead, 1552. Clarke was undoubtedly defeated through fraudulent returns.

THE EAR.—Doctor Hartley leaves Milwaukee direct for his institution, at Philadelphia, next week.

THE HARTFORD INSURANCE CO.—The condition of this office, notwithstanding the losses of the last two months, is sound. The capital is whole, with a respectable surplus. The company do not owe a single dollar to any individual, banking or other institution for money borrowed, it has neither notes nor acceptances outstanding, in the hands of any individual or institution, with a large balance in cash to their credit at the bank. And every claim for losses now outstanding will be promptly paid at maturity or before. Their investments, principally in bank stocks, exceed four hundred thousand dollars, and for over forty years that this company has been doing business, it has been the endeavor of its officers and the board of directors to transact it in an honorable way, and in no instance can it be shown that they have sought to increase it by detracting from the good name of any other insurance company in this city.—Hartford Daily Courant.

The above is just as we expected, and we are glad to learn that the old Ætna, of Hartford, is also prospered. These companies suffer from their good reputation, and on account of their popularity, come in for a scorching at almost every fire. See advertisement of "Dodge's Insurance Agency."

CARROLL COUNTY.—Gentlemen from Carroll county inform us, that the people are almost unanimously opposed to Nebraskaism, and that a large number of the democrats intend to make their voice directly felt on the subject, by casting a plump vote for Washburne for congress. This shows good sense as well as patriotism.—How are such political abuses to be prevented, unless it be by voting them down!—Galena Advertiser.

VERY GOOD.—The Milwaukee News and Milwaukee Free Democrat are discussing the propriety of abandoning all personalities in their newspaper controversies hereafter. No two papers in the state stand more in need of such reform.—Kenosha Telegraph.

MR. EDITOR:—The question so often asked, "Have we a Bourbon among us" has almost lost its interest in the public mind, and another of no less importance to the community taken its place. "Have we a know nothing among us," to be answered by some of the knowing ones in this town.

These know nothings, or as they intend the public should appreciate and understand them as all-knowing, are frequently in strict conformity with their title rightly named, and in several instances too, without themselves even being conscious of their own deficiency to understand why they assumed a name so very applicable to themselves. But then, there are others from among that fraternity who rather deserve the appellation of say nothings that are good men and the true grit of our constitution, men who are ready at all times, in all places, and at all hazards, for they run none—nobody knowing who, or where they are to be found, to defend, uphold and enforce if needs be the rights of the community, and in whose eyes property is as sacred as the lives they covet. Not great talkers, but watchful, thinking men ever on the alert, but never seen, so knowing indeed, that while other men of different opinions are differing as to the amount of that difference, and are planning the means, and devising their man to nominate for member of congress, when lo! the "know nothing" candidate is half way to Washington, congratulating himself that he had the good fortune not to belong to such a set of quibblers.

Now sir, it is these great talkers, or babblers strictly speaking who are the real know nothings, for by their incessant chat, they tell or lose all they ever did possess of knowledge, and when they said their say, are left with empty heads, and from the self-same cause are positively in the same breath do nothings, which goes to confirm the old maxim that great "talkers are in general little doers." I think Mr. Editor by giving publicity to the foregoing remarks, the question with the true definition of the pure know nothings will be in a position for answering itself. Yours truly,

A LOOKER ON.

DOUGLAS ON A NEW TACK.—Little Douglas, it seems, tried the free-soil dodge upon his indignant constituents at Chicago, but without success. They would not hear him at all, after he had insulted them with his supercilious, insolent imputation of ignorance. Becoming incensed with the rather humorous ejaculations of some of his auditory, he lost his temper—not much of a loss, by the way—indulged in coarse, vituperative language, and told the people they knew nothing about the Nebraska bill. This was more frank than civil, certainly, whether true or false; and we are not surprised that a flare-up was the immediate consequence. Douglas, who is the most conceited, confident, presumptuous, arrogant, small giant in the world, thought at first he could bully the brethren, and tried hard words with them, but without the slightest effect, except to intensify their indignation. Then being extremely anxious to finish his oration, he put his clumsy, crazy little craft on a new tack. According to an account now before us, he undertook to persuade his hearers that the Nebraska bill was an anti-slavery demstration—that the repeal of the Missouri compromise would prevent the introduction of any more slave states into the union—that if that line had remained intact all states formed south of it must have been admitted with slavery, if the people had hankered after the benefits of that beneficent institution. This certainly was a plausible view of the case, and if Douglas had presented it in the senate he would have rendered his southern coadjutors effectual service, and perhaps aided to defeat the measure. But the candor and ingenuousness of the orator did not impress the Chicago people very profoundly, and his characteristic device had no perceptible effect in conciliating them.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer says Douglas is an extremely pious and devout man, never using a word of profane language, and having prayers in his family night and morning. Probably he celebrated domestic worship with uncommon fervor and unction the morning after the Chicago people declined to have their minds illumined by his wisdom.—Buff. Com. Adv.

OHIO POLITICS.—The election of members of congress takes place in the course of about four weeks. The canvass is now in full blast, and the contest in nearly every one of the twenty-one districts promises to be of the most spirited description. Notwithstanding the enormous majorities by which the democrats have carried the state in the last few years, the Cincinnati Gazette is inclined to believe that there is a clear opposition majority of some fifteen thousand, divided between the whig and free soil parties. In the present canvass these two have united upon the same candidates, and the main contest throughout the state is upon the Nebraska question. In the present congress, Ohio is represented in the house by seven whigs, twelve democrats, and two free soilers, and the Gazette thinks that the chances are in favor of every one of the districts being represented by an anti-administration member in the next congress.

"Behold how brightly breaks the morning!" sang the Washington Union, when it received the returns of the New Hampshire election, upon which the Concord Patriot staked its political reputation, and which the Boston Post endorsed. Since then the morning has broke in other states, only more so. We are gratified to perceive that the Washington Union continues to be pleased with the bright prospects around. At least we infer so, from a recent article on the Syracuse convention, in which we are informed that the administration has been every where sustained by the people—"applauded and sustained," are its words.—Boston Atlas.

DECEIVING THE EMIGRANTS.—A story has been circulated in Liverpool, and has been repeated in Cork and Limerick with many additions, that "the United States will give 160 acres of land to the chief of every family arriving at the ports of New York and Boston!"—This is founded on the Nebraska bill, no doubt. The effect will be astounding; every man who can raise, borrow, or beg three pounds sterling, will embark for the United States. When this "half told tale" reaches Antwep, Bremen, and Amsterdam, it will greatly increase emigration. These emigrants have no idea of the distance of Nebraska from the Atlantic shore, and the "runners" take care not to say anything about it.—N. Y. Mirror.

☞ Corn has come to maturity in Minnesota, this season in just 92 days after being planted.

ANOTHER BEAR STORY.—A friend on reading the account of an attack made by a woman and some boys upon a she bear swimming in Lake Champlain, with her cubs, furnishes us the particulars of a like contest in Niagara river, some years since. The Champlain bear story was published in this paper a few days ago; but for fear that some of our readers may have overlooked it, we will repeat the circumstances now. Some boys and a woman who had been picking berries in the vicinity of South bay, a couple of miles north of Whitehall, pushed off a boat and rowed up to a large she bear which was swimming in the lake with her cubs, when one of the party struck the bear with an oar. Thus molested, the bear turned upon the attacking party, and clapping her fore paws on the side of the boat, she exhibited a handsome row of ivory, and made an effort to get inside the skiff. Another bear and cubs also came to the rescue. After considerable manœuvering on both sides, a compromise was effected by which the bear let go the boat, and the boat made a "straight wake" for the shore. The boys and woman went on their way rejoicing, and so did the bears. The former had a narrow escape from being upset in their boat and having a fight in deep water with the bears, while the latter were probably satisfied with being permitted to escape in safety.

The affair on the Niagara, as related by our friend, was in this wise:—A boatman was crossing the river a short distance above the rapids in a skiff, which he pulled with a pair of sculls. When about a quarter of a mile from the American side, he espied a large bear in the water a few rods below him, swimming lustily for the point where he expected to land, just below Schlosser. Bruin had evidently started from the lower end of Grand Island for the main land. The boatman forgot his dangerous proximity to the rapids, in his eagerness to secure the bear, and immediately turning the bow of his skiff down stream, with a few vigorous strokes, he came near enough to the animal to strike him with the oar. Bruin turned to bay, and as his assailant aimed a second blow at his head, he knocked the oar out of the man's hand. Here was a dilemma of the most perplexing description. The boat was unmanageable in the swift current with a single oar—it was fast drifting towards the upper rapids, and the man was in despair. The bear too became sensible of his danger, and seizing hold of the bow of the boat, climbed on board; but apparently overcome with terror, as she approached the rushing water, seated himself quietly, without offering to molest the boatman. The poor fellow looked at the bear with horror, and then at the rapids with increasing alarm. Bruin believed himself with perfect propriety, however. To be sure he did not proffer his aid in propelling the boat towards the shore; but he regarded his fellow navigator and operations with great interest, and an uncommon benign countenance. It was evident that he considered himself a mere passenger, and while he wished his companion well, he felt bound in honor not to interfere with the management of the craft. Meantime the boat had reached the Sholossar rapids, and bear and man must soon be beyond all human aid. Being an expert swimmer, the man leaped overboard, hoping to reach the land at a point below, known as the French landing.—The bear followed him immediately, and the twain struck out with the vigor imparted by desperation, the bear keeping as near the man as possible, but without making any hostile demonstration. They finally touched the shore nearly at the same time, both much exhausted by the efforts they had made. On reviving, the boatman fled with all the speed he could make, and he was as much surprised as delighted to see the bear running still more rapidly in the contrary direction.

The story is a pretty tough one; but there is no fact in natural history better attested than that the most ferocious animals become subdued, peaceable and harmless in the presence of an overmastering danger.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser.

ROADSIDE CONFAB.—"And so, squire, you don't take your county paper?"

"No, major, I get the city paper on much better terms, and so I take a couple of them."

"But squire, these county papers prove a great convenience to us. The more we encourage them, the better their editors can make them."

"I dont know of any convenience they are to me."

"The farm you sold last fall was advertised in one of them, and you thereby obtained a customer, did you not?"

"Very true, major, but I paid three dollars for it."

"And made much more than three dollars by it. Now if your neighbors had not maintained that press and kept it ready for your use, you would have been without the means of advertising your daughter's marriage in one of those newspapers. Did that cost you anything?"

"No, but——"

"And your brothers death was thus published."

"Yes, yes, but——"

"And the destruction of neighbor Brigg's house by fire. You know these things were exaggerated until the authentic accounts of our newspapers set them right."

"Oh, true, but——"

"And when your cousin Splash was 'out' for the legislature, you appeared gratified at his newspaper defence which cost him nothing."

"Yes, yes, but these things are news for the readers, they cause people to take papers."

"No, no, Squire Grudge, not if all are like you. Now, I tell you, the day will come when some one will write a very long eulogy on your life and character, and the printer will put it in types, with a heavy black line over it; and with all your riches this will be done for you as a grave is given to a pauper. Your wealth, liberality and such things, will be spoken of, but the printer's boy, as he spells the words in arranging the types to these sayings, will remark of you: 'Poor, mean devil, he is even sponging for his obituary notice!' Good morning, squire."

In many parts of Missouri, the cattle, in consequence of the extreme drouth, are dying of what the farmers call dry murrain—a disease induced by excessive and long continued thirst.

An extensive milk dealer of Paris was recently fined 20,000 francs, and condemned to six months imprisonment, for reducing his milk with water. His books, which were kept with accuracy, showed that his profits thus realized in the course of the last three months were 80,000 francs.

REPLY TO A CHALLENGE.—Hon. G. A. Simmons, upon being interrogated by a southern senator with what he would do in case some southern gentleman should send him a challenge to fight a duel, made the following quaint reply: "I would," said he, "sit down and write him thus—Dear sir:—I received your challenge this moment. I am too great a coward to fight, and you must have known it, or else you would not have sent me that challenge."

Cholera, since its first appearance in 1817, has, it is stated, swept off upwards of 70,000,000 of the human race.

OUTRAGE IN ALBANY.—This morning, about two o'clock, Capt. Cox was called upon at the 4th district station house by the captain of the canal boat D. Adams, who stated that eight or ten men and boys came on board his boat when he and his wife were asleep, beat the captain badly, and put him on the dock. They then took his wife away. The boat was moored near the north ferry. Captain Cox rallied his men and went in pursuit of the desperadoes. They had stolen a yawl from a sloop, and the police got another and started for Bath. Just before reaching the shore they met a boat which was in possession of persons in pursuit of a gang who had taken a young girl 17 or 18 years old, from James Gregory, who was conveying her to Bath in a small skiff. Her name was Margaret Haller, and she resided two miles from Bath. Gregory was overtaken by the gang in a boat near the Bath shore and badly beaten. She was conveyed to the lumber district, where they outrageously violated her. The police succeeded in arresting two men named William Avery and Thomas Fagan. The girl recognises Thomas Fagan as one of her assailants. The captain's wife was not heard from at ten o'clock this morning. Another of the gang escaped by shedding his coat in the scuffle. This is the most high handed piece of villainy ever perpetuated in our midst.—Atlas, 5th inst.

We think it quite possible, we would say to the Kenosha Democrat, that not one person in ten has read the whole of the Nebraska bill, but it is, we think, a fact that there is not one person in ten but that has read all there is about which there is any controversy, or about which it was at all necessary for Douglas to make any explanation. It is rather a shallow dodge for the Democrat, or any other paper, to justify Douglas in calling the people of Chicago ignorant of the matter because they had not read an act nineteen-twentieths of which was not at all in question, when each and every one was as familiar with what was in controversy as with their A B C's. We confess that we have not read the bill at length, and do not expect to, but we are not therefore ignorant that it has a clause in it repealing the slavery prohibition which was extended over Kansas and Nebraska, for the end, object and purpose that slavery might spread into that Territory.—Kenosha Telegraph.

MILWAUKEE BONDS.—The following sale of Milwaukee city bonds took place in Wall street, New York on Thursday last:

$5,000	city of Milwaukee	7 per cent bonds,		72½
$5,000	do	do	do	71
$20,000	do	do	do	70

These bonds are said to be a portion of those issued to the Green Bay, Milwaukee and Chicago railroad company.

Shells weighing 100 pounds were fired from Lancaster's long-range gun the other day on board a vessel near the Isle of Wigh with a surprising result. One was sent 4,000 yards distance, and reached the top of a cliff 500 feet high. It was calculated that in a tranquil sea, so that good aim could be taken, a mark 7,000 yards distant might be hit by this gun.

One of the most amusing incidents of the late excursion to Rock Island is thus related by The Utica Telegraph. "A gentlemen in the washroom said to the captain of the boat, 'can't you give me a clean towel, captain?' 'No,' said the captain, "more than fifty persons have used that towel there, and you are the first one that's said a word against it.'"

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.—The Dayton Empire thus relates how providentially Mr. Hosler escaped death from a stroke of lightning, a few days since, while traveling home in a storm:

"The fluid entered his hat where the crown joins the rim, burning a large hole and tearing the brim to pieces, passed down his face, lacerating it severely, knocking out his teeth, tore off the greater part of the lower lip, then passed down his body, tearing it frightfully, passed out of his slippers into the earth, tearing about a half a dozen holes in them! At the time of the casualty, it was raining in torrents, which must have accounted for his not being instantly killed.

Something New!!

MR. CHARLES AUSTIN, the celebrated Reed maker has just completed his new Organ Reed, upon which he has labored for the last five years and expended more than six thousand dollars. This reed is different from all others in its composition, being much larger and having more power. It is intended for Church and Parlor Organs as manufactured by Messrs. Austin & Co. These Organs have an upright (Organ) action and are of the shape of all Church Organs. The price will range from $175 to $300, depending upon the finish of the case. To churches in want of an instrument of that value we would say that they have more power than any common Organ costing, $500.

J. F. Pease & Co., Janesville Wis., are interested in the manufacture and sale of these instruments, and are the only persons through whom they can be had. They will have one or more for exhibition as early as Sept. 10, and after that a good assortment as soon as they can be manufactured.

The ONE PRICE CASH SYSTEM, originally introduced into this community and strictly adhered to by this Establishment, has won for it a reputation far more valuable than the Stupendous Self-puffings, quarterly renewed, industriously circulated but universally discredited, which many modern shop keepers deem indispensable to success.

The system will of course be continued—admitting no variation or improvement—to the satisfaction undoubtedly of a large and most desirable class of customers, although at the sacrifice probably of the steady patronage of inveterate higglers and those who inherit the belief that all Salesmen will cheat them if possible.

Respectfully,
COOLEY & BABCOCK.

NEW GOODS!

$15,000 Worth of

JUST RECEIVED AT THE

Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store.

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Janesville; and what is finer than all the rest, I can sell them at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the Eastern Market. My assortment of

Ladies Fine Shoes,

in particular, I have no hesitation in saying cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant, they shall be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty-five per cent. than can be found at any of the side shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE TRADE my WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole pile of petty dealers put together. And I know also that I can make it an object for Every Farmer in Rock County, as well as every one that trades in Janesville to buy their Boots and Shoes of me for the more I sell the smaller profits I can sell at.

Manufacturing.

I want to say a few words to you in regard to my Manufacturing Department, to wit: That I am now engaged more extensively in the manufacturing business, and probably am selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern tannage, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent more than the common western tanned leather; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can

and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must all see is a very palpable one, that in buying my stock cast and in such large quantities, I of course save a very large per cent, and thereby can sell at lower prices and at the same time make my profits.

I want to state further that I have secured the services of MR. BUCKINGHAM, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the River, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the city; and if we don't get you up a better article, both in regard to style and durability, we will forfeit our money and our reputation, and I pledge you my word that this is no small forfeit.

Leather and Findings.

I have just received over $3,000 worth of the very best brands of Eastern Sole & Upper Leather; also, a very large assortment of FRENCH and PHILADELPHIA KIP and FRENCH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at

Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.

I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kings of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TREES, CRIMPS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the pedlers.

TO THE LADIES,

I would say that I am under very great obligation for the partiality you have shown me, in always procuring your understandings from me, and I now publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you who may be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of CACKS, when I shall have closed up my shoe-selling career. I would say further, that I am prepared to get up to order any style of work you wish, at low rates. Yours respectfully,
J. B. DIMOCK, Proprietor,
T. H. BUCKINGHAM, Foreman.
By the way, don't forget the location of the Institution, three doors above the Post Office, Janesville, Wisconsin.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

THE BOSTON STORE.

Let the Horn be Blown!!

"Sound the loud timbrel o'er land and o'er sea," WHEELOCK'S triumphant, and ever shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that

"Man wants but little here below,"

and to supply those wants

WHEELOCK

Announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all ganges, that finding his old store entirely

TOO SMALL!

He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to

Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!

Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,

$39,007 00 Worth of Goods

But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the

BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.

Indeed, history must fail to give the searcher of knowledge any accurate idea of his immense

STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS,

His inimitable selection of

Fancy Dress Goods!

He has over

10,000 Yards of Silk Bareges,

of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsels of this fair valley can select,

FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES,

Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exquisite beauty, though it may as a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to gild refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamelion and Foulard Silks, but all manner of

are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparel.— Eved French red foxed Gaiters,
do do wolfed do
Ladies' Enameled Boots, Enameled sewed Congress Boots,
LADIES MOROCCO POLKAS,

And all the articles manufactured of the best styles.— So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sex are concerned, it may be truly said

"CUSTOM cannot stale the infinite variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of

GLOVES,

by which hands can be protected and retain

"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are

"Heaven's last, best gift to man,"

the Nonpareils of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock assures his fair customers that his assistants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge CONSCIENTIOUSLY their several and respective duties— that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

And now to the wants of the

COARSE-HAND SEX.

Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality—

PANTALOONS,

CALF "BEWTS," COW HIDE do., GAZELLE, do., PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,

HATS

That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's sconce, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Hibernian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomatumed, ambrosialized, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,

The Boston Store

Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Allegheny mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer
DOMESTIC GLASSWARE, WORSTED,
Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn,
Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels,
Looking Glasses, Ready-Made Over Coats, Pants,
Raisins, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns,
Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm,
Chests, Norwegian Bandboxes and Hair Trunks,
Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.

In the

CROCKERY

Line may be found the BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Candlesticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LAW VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in fine, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have

"Often seen corruption boil and bubble till It o'errun the stew,"

they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not

"Stand like forfeits in a Barber shop, More in mock than mark."

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

FROM a Well 400 feet deep, Near Pittsburgh, Pa., is offered to the public as a Natural Medicine of no common value. It is a different thing from the old Kentucky or American Oil, as this is used INTERNALLY as well as externally. As a local remedy in Paralysis, Piles, Rheumatism, Deafness, Loss of Sight, Burns, &c. —also, as a valuable Internal Remedy for Piles, Ague, Scrofula, Coughs, Diarrhœa, Erysipelas, old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Worms, Bladder and Kidneys, Bronchitis, Pains &c. &c., it invites the investigating Physician, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Discovered in 1849, it has within 2 or 3 years, made multitudes of cures, and multitudes of friends—and as soon as tried the Sales not only increase but hold out. Testimony to its great merit is constantly accumulating in the hands of the proprietor by certificates, letters, and in other ways.

IT DOCTORS THE WHOLE MAN—flesh and blood —skin and bones—from head to foot—how it acts upon the system—upon diseases of different manifestations, we cannot fully tell. While it is both cathartic and astringent, it is Alterative—and mind you, a REGULATOR. A leading principle in it is Naptha. When you once have it in the family you will not be without it.

Full as the world is of Patent Medicines—it is thought not best to suppress this, the work of NATURE—to make room for Human inventions. Price 50 cents per bottle. It can be had of wholesalers at the large cities and towns in the West at Proprietor's prices.

HAVE WE AGUE AMONG US?—A tea spoonful every three hours in the absence of the fever will cure you of Ague or Diarrhœa. ☞ Physicians, Druggists, and all friends of the afflicted, will do well to recommend this Oil for PROLAPSUS UTERI, and good will be done —take the usual dose 2 or 3 times a day, and bathe the lower part of the back with it. Have you SCROFULA? The Petroleum will eradicate it, root and branch, at little cost or inconvenience. Get circulars of directions for adults and children, gratis of the agents. A trial is all we ask. Mind and get the right kind—it is of a beautiful reddish color and clear. Try it for Piles.

For sale by HOLDEN KEMP & CO.,

A GREAT MISTAKE,

J. B. CROSBY & Co.

HAVE just returned from New York and Boston, and purchased so large a stock of Merchandise that they have not room to store them, and to remedy this, they have concluded to mark their goods down at

A TRIFLE ABOVE COST,

which will crowd their store with customers and ensure large and heavy sales, thus making room for goods yet to arrive. Ladies and Gentlemen,

THIS IS NO HUMBUG,

but a REALITY, and to be convinced of this fact personally, look through their immense stock, see the amount of goods they have in store, (and but a portion of their stock has yet arrived,) enquire the price, and you will acknowledge that we will sell you

GOOD GOODS, at nearly half the Price,

that other Merchants charge. We shall not mention a few leading articles and their prices, and sell the balance of stock at higher rates, as other Merchants do, but shall mark our whole stock at a small regular profit, and adhere strictly to the

ONE PRICE SYSTEM.

Our stock consists of STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, CROCKERY, BOOTS AND SHOES, HATS, CAPS, CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS, READY-MADE CLOTHING, &c. &c., to which we invite especial attention, as to quality and price, as we are determined that

Every Sale shall give Full and Perfect Satisfaction.

Auction or shop worn goods which are not cheap a any price we do not deal in; but buy only the bes grade of goods, and of the latest styles. We are the only House in Janesville that do a strictly cash business, and buying of importers and wholly for cash, we than those who buy small stocks on time, and sell them the same way.

To Country Merchants,

1000 Dollars Reward,

WILL be given to any person—Physician or otherwise—who will perform a cure as quickly and permanently, by any means whatever, of any of the following diseases, as can be done by the use of

PULVERMACHER'S

Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains.

Rheumatism,	Nervous Headache,
Painful and Swelled Joints,	Palpitation of the Heart,
Sciataca,	General Debility,
Paralysis,	Female Diseases,
Spinal Disease,	Neuralgia of the Face,
Deafness, Blindness,	Rheumatic Pains of the Chest
Dyspepsia, Indigestion,

ALL NERVOUS DISEASES

Are almost instantly removed by the simple application of the Electric Chains, which are constructed so as to be worn next to the skin, producing a constant current of uninterrupted Electro-Magnetism, which within the last few years has been discovered to possess STRANGE and WONDERFUL POWER, in the INSTANT RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of nervous diseases.

HISTORY.

Pulvermachers' Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnochan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.

THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED

to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from scientific Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.

Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.

All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill "which flesh is heir to" is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as an Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that nervous diseases are not more frequently increased in severity than relieved, by the old antiquated way of giving medicine into the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much,) make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic;"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled molasses and water be at a discount, and its famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.

The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.

CAUTION.

Ladies who are enciente, are requested not to wear them, for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.

Price of Chains, $3 to $5, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country, together with a pamphlet of 36 pages, containing the modes of use, certificates of cure, &c.
